WILLIAMSBURG COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT ANNOUNCES FORMER ALL-AMERICAN TONY DUNKIN AS THE NEW BOYS' BASKETBALL COACH OF THE KINGSTREE HIGH SCHOOL BLAZERS

Former Terrell's Bay High School and Coastal Carolina University basketball standout Tony Dunkin has been named the new Boys' basketball coach of the Kingstree High School Blazers. As an All-American college basketball player at Coastal Carolina, Tony Dunkin was known for being one of the only basketball players in NCAA history that was named Player of the Year for four years by the Big South Conference. He has been inducted into the S.C. Athletic Hall of Fame, the Big South Conference Hall of Fame, and the Coastal Carolina University Athletic Hall of Fame. He will take the reins of the Kingstree Blazers boys' basketball team for the upcoming season.

Tony Dunkin brings a wealth of knowledge to the game of basketball as a high school basketball player under the legendary coach Taft Watson and as a coach with stints at Conway High School and his alma mater, the former Terrell's Bay High School. He is married to the former Jennifer Moses, and they have three children and one granddaughter. His coaching philosophy can be summed up in this quote, "hard work always beats talent especially when talent is not working hard."
