Houston County SAT Scores Higher than State and National Averages

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – For the ninth consecutive year, Houston County School District's SAT scores have outperformed the state and national averages. The College Board recently released SAT scores for the Class of 2025. Houston County School District students earned a mean total score of 1,071, which is 75 points higher than the national mean and 42 points above the state mean.

Houston County students outperformed their peers in public schools across the nation by 41 points in Evidence-Based Reading and Writing and by 34 points in Math. A total of 919 Houston County students in the Class of 2025 took the SAT.

"Our students continue to achieve remarkable growth each year in their SAT performance," said Dr. Richard Rogers, Superintendent of Schools. "Congratulations to every one of our students on this outstanding accomplishment. Their dedication and perseverance have set a high bar, keeping us ahead of both state and national averages. We look forward to seeing the progress they will continue to make."
