

Auditions for the Morning Music Club

Joseph Maerz Award

2023

The Morning Music Club of Macon sponsors this award, annually. The purpose of this $4,000 scholarship award is to encourage and reward achievement and excellence in musical performance. The Maerz Award was started in 1969 and is named for Professor Joseph Maerz, a member of the Wesleyan College faculty, who was widely known as a teacher, music critic and performer. In 2021, we were able to add the $2000 Joyce Martin Award in memory of our beloved member and faithful supporter of the competition. Winners of both awards are expected to continue music studies in college, though it is not required to major in music.

Attached you will find an intent to audition form, application form, application guidelines and rules governing this competition. Please forward this email to prospective high school senior contestants, music teachers and school college counselors.

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

2023 Morning Music Club Joseph Maerz Award Sponsored by the Morning Music Club of Macon, Georgia

The purpose of this award is to encourage and reward achievement and excellence in music. The Maerz Award was started in 1969 and is named for Professor Joseph Maerz, a member of the Wesleyan College faculty, who was widely known as a teacher, music critic and performer. Our second place Joyce Martin Award is named in memory of our beloved club member and benefactor of the Maerz Award.

A panel of three (3) judges adjudicates the competition. These judges are musicians who are not members of the Morning Music Club. The winner of the competition will receive a $4,000 scholarship. The winner of the Joyce Martin Award will receive a $2000 scholarship. There is a possibility of runner-up awards at the judges' discretion.

Eligibility Requirements

Applicants must be high school seniors (or graduating juniors, or first year graduates who have taken a gap year) who will be entering college at the end of the current school year and will continue their applied music studies in college the following school year.

Applicants must be:

1. Residents of Bibb, Jones, Monroe, Houston, Crawford, Peach, or Twiggs Counties
2. or students of a teacher who resides in Bibb, Jones, Monroe, Houston, Crawford, Peach, or Twiggs Counties
3. or students of a member of the Morning Music Club.
4. Applicants should be students who will continue applied music studies in college, though a music major is not required.

Rules Governing

The 2023 Joseph Maerz Award

Eligibility Requirements

1. Applicants must be high school seniors (or graduating juniors, or first year graduates who have taken a gap year) who will be entering college at the end of the current school year.
2. Applicants must be either residents of Bibb, Jones, Monroe, Twiggs, Crawford, Peach or Houston County or students of (1) a member of the Morning Music Club or (2) an applied music teacher who resides in Bibb, Jones, Monroe, Twiggs, Crawford, Peach or Houston County.
3. Applicants should be students who will continue applied music studies in college, though a music major is not required.

Literature Requirements

4. All applicants (keyboard, instrumental, and vocal) must be prepared to perform two solo pieces from two contrasting periods: (a) Baroque, (b) Classical, (c) Romantic, (d) Impressionistic, (e) contemporary (in the classical or serious music genre). Vocal applicants may perform a third piece, time permitting.
5. Memorization of audition pieces is not mandatory but is strongly encouraged, especially in those disciplines where it is the general practice to perform from memory. (e.g. pianists, vocalists)
6. The combined length of the audition pieces must not exceed a total of eight minutes. The judges will stop the performance at the end of the allotted time. Excerpts of pieces will be acceptable.
7. All applicants should have reached a level of proficiency in music acceptable for college course work. Vocalists should present repertoire comparable to Twenty-four Italian Songs and Arias of Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries. Organists should present repertoire comparable to Bach's Preludes and Fugues.

Competition Procedures

8. Applicants must submit an Intent to Audition form and entry fee of $15 postmarked no later than Saturday, February 11, 2023. Applicants will receive an email confirmation.
9. Applicants must produce a video of their audition and upload the video to YouTube. This video must be unlisted, but not private. A link to this video must be emailed to maconmorningmusicclub@gmail.com along with the completed application. If the piece has an accompaniment, it is strongly recommended that instrumentalists and vocalists have an accompanist when making the video. (Cell phone video is preferred and easy to upload to YouTube.)
11. Applicants auditioning on more than one instrument must submit a separate video and application for each instrument. Each contestant must provide his/her own accompanist if needed.
12. A panel of three professional musicians from outside the Morning Music Club will serve as adjudicators. These judges will select finalists from the submitted videos who will audition live on Friday, March 10, 2023, 7:00pm, Vineville United Methodist Church, Macon.
13. Applicants must provide at least two published musical scores per piece for judges on the day of the live competition. Use of photocopies will disqualify the applicant. Measures must be numbered on all the scores. The pieces performed live must be the same as those in the submitted video.
14. There will be a $4,000 prize awarded to one winner and a $2000 prize awarded to one second place winner. This will be sent directly to the college of his/her choice. If, in the opinion of the judges, a desired standard is not reached, an award will not be made. Runner up awards will be given at the judges' discretion. A tie decision will result in a split award.
15. The winner is expected to perform at the April 13, 2023, 10:30 a.m. meeting of the Morning Music Club at Wesleyan College with accompanist as needed. Receipt of the monetary award is contingent upon performing for the Morning Music Club at this meeting. A tie decision will result in a split award.
16. Any comments regarding the competition must be addressed by email or phone to the Joseph Maerz chairperson. Decisions regarding unforeseen questions are made by the Maerz chairperson, often with input from the Maerz Committee.

Dress Code

17. The contestant as well as the accompanist should wear business attire.

18. There should be no gum, candy, etc. in your mouth during your performance.

Video

19. Production of the video is entirely at the contestant's discretion. Judges will be judging the ability of the contestant, not the quality of the video. If the piece has an accompaniment, it is strongly recommended that instrumentalists and vocalists have an accompanist when making the video. The contestant must upload the video to YouTube and designate it unlisted but not private. The combined length of audition pieces must not exceed a total of eight minutes. A cell phone video works very well. (Sound will be better if the phone is held and not propped on a shelf.)
20. Remember that this video is an audition. Approach or carry your instrument correctly. Announce your name and the pieces you will be performing. Choose an appropriate location. Bow at the end of your last piece. You will be judged on your stage presence as well as your performance.
21. Please label the video with the name of the selection pieces and the contestant's name. The video must be unlisted, but not private. The web address of the video, or link, must be submitted by email with a completed application. All judges will have one week to view and judge the first round of competition from the video. Finalists will be notified no later than Sunday, March 5th.

Conduct

22. At the live audition, there will be a recital-like atmosphere.
23. At the live audition, you will be called when it is your turn to perform.
24. Give your music to the club member who will hand it to the judges. Inform them of any cuts you have pre-planned. Wait to enter until instructed.
25. Approach or carry your instrument correctly. Announce your name and the pieces you will be performing.
26. Bow at the end of your performance.
27. After your performance, you may sit outside or in the audience and wait for the judges to complete your score sheets. You may sit through all of the auditions or some of them. Enter and leave at the end of a student's performance, but not while he or she is performing.
28. You will be judged on your stage presence as well as your performance.
