Some positions in this district have specific physical requirements. If you are applying for such a position, you will be asked about any physical limitations or disabilities that would be dangerous to you or your fellow employees if you were to fill this particular position. A physical examination may be required. Other positions may not be held by persons convicted of certain crimes. If you are hired, fingerprinting is mandatory. A personal interview is required before employment.

I understand that all employment is with the district and not at a particular school.

I certify the information I have given on this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. Untruthful or misleading answers are grounds for dismissal.
