Ms. Windham's Classroom Procedures

~If you are sick, please don't come to school.

~Practice social distancing when possible (3 feet).

~Sanitize your hands when you enter and leave the classroom.

~Avoid touching your face and mask (if you are wearing one).

~If you are absent...

1. Check Google Classroom for the list of assignments for the date(s) you were absent.
2. Check the makeup work folder for the day you were absent for any handouts that you may have missed.
3. It is your responsibility to make up missed assignments and arrange make-up tests/quizzes. Please do so within three school days of your absence. A "1" will hold the place of any assignment missed due to an excused absence and will be changed once the assignment is made up. Assignments not made up or not turned in for any other reason will be entered as a "0."

~If you miss a test or quiz...

1. It is your responsibility to schedule a time for your make-up assessment with Ms. Windham.
2. Be sure to sign in when you arrive for your make-up.

~If you need extra help...

1. Check out Google Classroom for some links to helpful websites and extra practice.
2. If you need to schedule a time for tutorial, let me know. Before attending, you must sign up for tutorial using the calendar at the back of the room and get a pass from Ms. Windham. When you sign up, be sure to include what skill you would like to review (irregular verbs, irony, vocabulary, etc.).
3. When you arrive to tutorial, sign in beside your previous entry on the calendar at the back of the room as a record of your attendance.

~If you do not have an assignment on time...

1. For each school day that your assignment is late, the potential score for that assignment will drop a letter grade. (example: On the first day the assignment is late, the highest grade possible will be an 80/B; on the second day, the highest grade possible will be a 70/C.)
2. Homework, projects, and essays are due at the beginning of class on the due date, not five minutes after class has begun or by the end of the school day. You will have a bell ringer assignment at the beginning of the period, and you will not be allowed to use class time to finish your homework. Because I know that there are times when even the most responsible person forgets something or gets behind on work (It happens to me, too. We are human!), each student will receive one Late Homework Pass per nine weeks. This will allow you to turn in your homework up to one day late without penalty. Keep in mind that this does not count for major papers or projects, and it does NOT exempt you from any reading quizzes that we may have the day following a reading assignment. In order for the pace of the class to remain unhindered, we must stay on pace with our reading. Please avoid using this Late Homework Pass if at all possible so that you do not get behind.

~If you need to leave class to use the restroom or retrieve an assignment from your locker...

Wait until an appropriate time to request your pass. Your hall passes are in your planner; you must have it to utilize your passes. You may not borrow a planner.

~What's my grade?

Access grades at <https://daleco.powerschool.com/public>. You should use your school email login and password to access your grades and comments. Check your grades at least once a week, and be sure to ask if you have questions.
