

Daily Fun with Your Little One!

| SUNDAY                                                                                       | MONDAY                                                                                 | TUESDAY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | WEDNESDAY                                                                                | THURSDAY                                                                                  | FRIDAY                                                                                                | SATURDAY                                                                                       |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 ReadingIt's Family Literacy Day. Read a favorite book with someone you love.    | 2 StoriesTell a story about a squirrel hiding a snack for winter.           | 3 MathVote for two favorite books and count which one gets more votes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 4 SongsSing a cleanup song while putting toys or books in a basket.           | 5 ScienceLook outside for signs of late fall. Which trees still have leaves?   | 6 WritingDraw a plate of favorite foods and name each item together.                       | 7 RhymesTake turns rhyming with fall words like leaf, pie, and cold.                |
| 8 PlayIt's STEM/STEAM Day. Build a tower with blocks, cups, or boxes.             | 9 SoundsListen for indoor and outdoor sounds. Is each sound loud or quiet?  | 10 ReadingRead a book with repeated words and invite your child to join in.                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 11 WritingIt's Veterans Day. Draw a thank-you picture for someone who served. | 12 ScienceUse a flashlight to make shadows. What happens when the light moves? | 13 PlayIt's World Kindness Day. Pretend to deliver kindness mail to loved ones.            | 14 MathCount pairs of socks, shoes, or mittens as you get ready for chilly weather. |
| 15 ScienceIt's America Recycles Day. Sort clean recyclables by material or color. | 16 RhymesRead a rhyming book and clap each time you hear a rhyming pair.    | 17 WritingMake a grocery list with pictures, scribbles, or letter-like marks.                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 18 SongsMake up a song about falling leaves and sing it together.             | 19 ReadingPoint out words on cans, boxes, signs, or menus while you are out.   | 20 StoriesIt's Universal Children's Day. Tell a story about kids playing together.         | 21 SoundsIt's World Hello Day. Say hello in a whisper, a roar, and a silly voice.   |
| 22 PlayPretend to host a cozy storytime for stuffed animals.                      | 23 MathCount five things you see at the table. Which one is biggest?        | 24 RhymesName words that rhyme with more, like door, floor, and roar.                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 25 WritingHelp your child make a thank-you card for someone they appreciate.  | 26 ReadingIt's Thanksgiving. Read a book about gratitude, family, or sharing.  | 27 ReadingIt's Native American Heritage Day. Read a picture book by an Indigenous creator. | 28 ScienceMix ingredients for a snack or recipe. Talk about what changes.           |
| 29 StoriesTell a story about a leaf floating on the wind.                         | 30 SongsSay goodbye to November by singing a favorite song fast, then slow. | Help your child get ready to learn to read! Each day features a fun activity that will help your child build pre-reading skills. Activities are color-coded by skill. Ask your children's librarian for more ideas on how to promote early literacy skills with daily activities at home. |                                                                                          |                                                                                           |                                                                                                       |                                                                                                |

