High school? Yes, high school. Under the honorable reign of Leo, we finally attained the title of "lowly" Freshman. We were fortunate to have Miss Warren as our sponsor and Danny Anderson as our President. Buffy Combs and Dennis Stephenson were our first Homecoming Representatives along with Carol Griffith and Donald Powell, who were members of the May Court. Carol and Doug Morrison were elected our choice for Best All Round. Everyone also enjoyed the annual class picnic, which was held at Eagle Lake. Among other memories was our first assembly. It seems everyone had quite a hard time getting up for the competition ye!!!

It was thrilling to know we were now considered a real part of the high school. The Seniors turned their attention to the new Freshmen, and for the most part, we were considered "nearly" as good as the upperclassmen. This year everyone began to take a little less embarrassed interest in the frequent dances and other social activities. Envious eyes watched the ordering of rings by the Juniors, and some Sophomore girls hoped they might be receiving a ring a little early. The year ended with delight as everyone congratulated themselves on reaching the status of upperclassmen.

This was the year of many activities and much hard work. We started the year off with a great class play, "Aaron Slick From Punkin Crick." Later, during the magazine drive, the class broke all previous records by earning over $3,000 in profit. Money and time made our Oriental Jr.-Sr. one of the most lovely dances of the year. Tragedy struck when someone burned the papier-mache buddha during cleanup! Finally the long awaited class rings arrived and everyone did their utmost to keep their hands in view at all times. Our last memory was Moving Day, when we were able to take our places in the most desirable seats in the "house".

The year we all thought would never come, finally arrived, and we became Seniors. Our first activity was Kid's Day, which included sticky half-eaten lollipops, pounds of freckles, ponytails and ribbons, and lunch on the high school lawn. We became a little more dignified during the annual Senior Tea, which was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keen. This year our class produced the dramatic play "The Barretts of Wimpole Street", which was excellently done. On Tower Day everyone discovered a variety of steps—all steep!

Our last Jr.-Sr. was beautifully decorated in an Underwater theme, and after the prom we once more enjoyed the all night events. Moving Day began with a Senior yell. Things that were willed included a pair of super bloomers, a gigantic cigar, a dead fish, and a tomato. On June 1, a steak fry and swimming party was held. Baccalaureate and Graduation were the last events of our Senior year and of high school. Sad, and yet happy, we left the halls of LWHS.

IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR

Well, do you like it? We sure hope so, because it was a bunch of work—but lots of fun. Elephant jokes and forgotten deadlines, rocking chairs and rained-out pictures, typographical errors and goofing off combined to give us fond and furious memories.

Eighteen wonderful and hard-working people served you well and deserve much appreciation. For planning and producing the junior and sophomore sections, we thank Rae Owens and Dottie Bernd. Although their jobs were freshmen and faculty, Faye Smith and Cissy Heath were always willing to do our odd jobs. The staff business managers, Ellen Wolfson, Phoebe Leckey, and Sally Sutton handled money matters smoothly. Darla Mylan and Sharon Horton did a wonderful job with organizations. Kay Whitlock and Pam Coleman devoted their time and abilities to the seniors: Kay to the senior section, Pam to the senior directory. To Doug Morrison and Wayne Leggett go our deepest thanks for working steadily to make a really great sports section. The fabulous art work all through the book was done quickly and efficiently by our artist, Donna Jean Perdue. We thank photographers Sam Updike, for taking the senior snapshots, and Terry Walden, for coming to our rescue so often. To David Fann, our knight in shining armor, we say thank you, for really, with his wonderful pictures he made our book. And then there's Carol Griffith, "the doer of all good deeds," for whom such small words as "thank you" can never express all we mean. We also thank Pat Stephens and Gail Gill, next year's editors, for the end of the year help they gave, and we wish them luck next year.

Miz Eddards, we love you. Need we say more?

Always reflect with happiness on 1964. And we hope that the 1964 Crown Jewel will help you to remember — it was a very good year.
