"Hurry up and take our picture before Mrs. Marcotte gets back from the office!"

Lydia — Is she Bunkie High's most talented cheerleader?

What's with the arms? Do you want your teacher to call on you, or are you proving to us that you use Sure?

"Who me? I didn't do anything wrong."

Are you guys going to the Sadie Hawkins Dance?

Edward and his bodyguards — looking TOUGH

"We're not sitting in our desks until we have a Valentine's Day Party."

Some members of the Yearbook Staff decorated for the Homecoming Dance and then struck a pose.

It looks like Jacob and Joshua have found a new friend.

You know, boys, Momma said there would be days like this.

"Ooh, boy! Let's make some mud pies."

Mrs. Gwen Roy shows William and Tara how to take Student I.D. pictures, a first at BHS this year.

Patrick can float like a butterfly and sting like a bee!

The Dance Line members tried out the new cosmetologist in town.

Tamiko and Chiquita get a little help from their friends to calm down their pre-Miss BHS Pageant jitters.

"Honest, Coach Fuller, we didn't do it. We've been standing right here all during lunch recess."

You know, girls, no one ever promised you that high school was going to be a rose garden.

If these two guys aren't the studliest guys ever ...

Marcus and his manager take a time out from training to pose for the press.

"You mean the FRESHMEN won the Panther Paw?"

Are y'all making fun of people again? Shame ... Shame ...

"And to think I used to help change his diapers."

"Uh oh, I think I'm gonna be sick."

Just chilling out during another bomb threat.

Melissa and her backup singers finish a song and wait for applause.

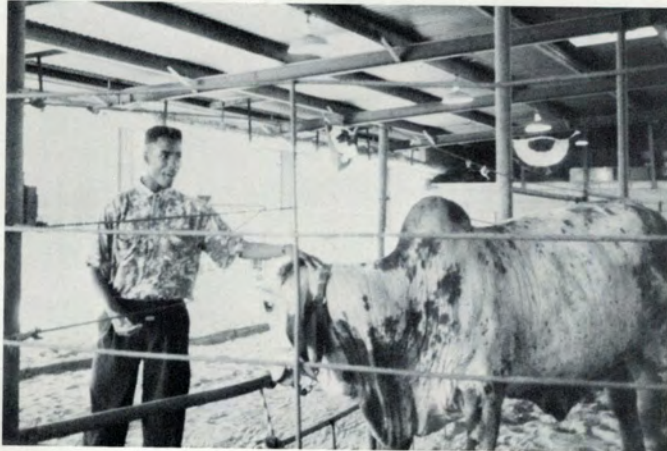

You can see it in Rhonda's face — it's Monday morning.

An annual event — the juniors take the ASVAB. Does anyone know what an ASVAB is?

Some people are just so camera shy. Or is she one of America's Most Wanted?

It's OK to touch him, Ronnie; just don't try to ride him. Yee Hah! Rodeo Ronnie!

Boy, those junior boys are sooo COOL!

They waited eleven years, and then the juniors finally got their graduation rings.

Robin, Abby, and Ann take a break from gossiping to smile for the camera.

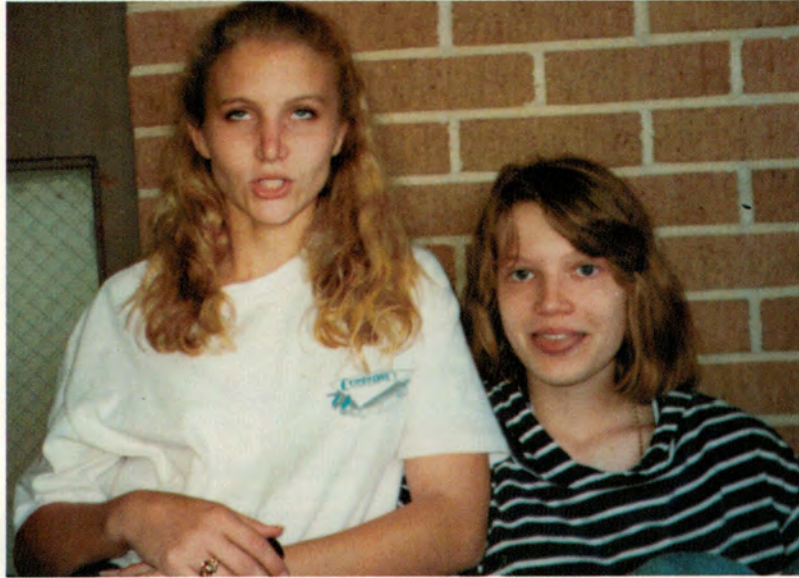

Kim and Tina embrace after signing a Wild Party Treaty at the International Summit held in the Bunkie High Gym.

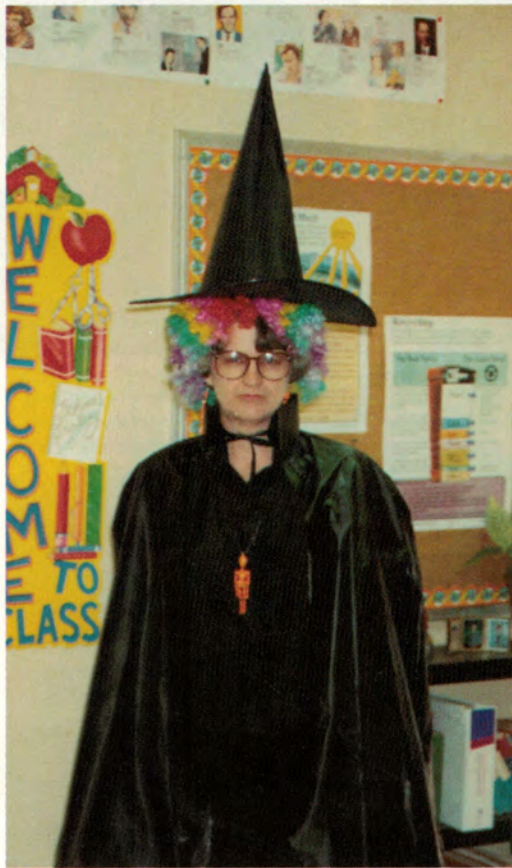

"Oops! We're caught feeding our faces with those delicious Outdoor Lunch cheeseburgers."

Nothing better to do at lunch recess than sit against the brick wall? Are y'all this subdued on the weekend?

The day after the Cottonport Christmas Parade.

You can do it. Just say, "How about a date tonight?"

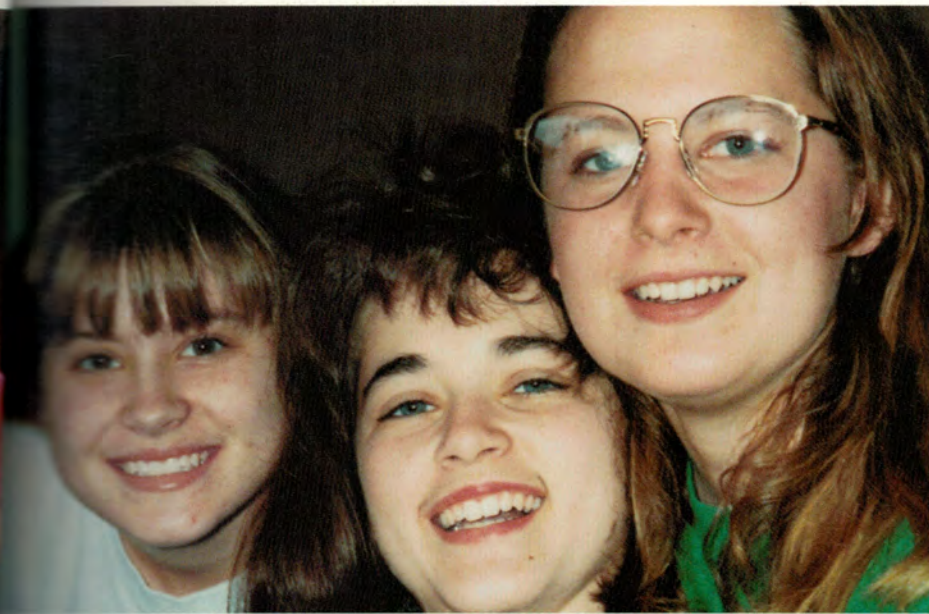

Human Wheelbarrows at the Football Follies

"Oh, Darling, carry me over the threshold."

How would you like to be a student in her class? It would be positively wicked!

"We know the Junior Class is the best." Sure, girls, whatever y'all say is OK with us, but don't let those seniors hear.

Looks like some teachers woke up late, so they came to school in their jammies.

Tricia, are you winking at us?!?

How would you like to have to KISS these guys? Well, maybe in a rush ... a real rush!

Kim "Swedish" Hedlund, our exchange student, dressed as a guy to show her spirit during Homecoming Week.

Now, John and Regi, both of you know Bunkie High has a Closed Campus, and escaping will not be tolerated.

Bunkie High's own Wall Street: "Heh, my stock just went up ten points!"

Did you ever see a more innocent-looking group of guys in your whole life?

There's really nothing to be of in a Fun House at a carnival some people need convinci

The Pointer Sisters in Concert ... What's a girl to do with so much attention?

They're smiling because they're leaving school to go to the Rapides Parish Fair with FFA.

Oh, the pain of doing a research paper for English class.

"Jude, stop blowing in my ear!"

The competition was fierce, but the seniors pulled it off and won the Homecoming Float Contest with this display.

Some members of the Senior Class make a fashion statement.

Whatever they're looking at certainly does seem to be interesting. Wonder what it could be.

Waiting, patiently as usual, for Channel One to come on the television and for Mr. Roy to make the daily announcements so we can find out all the really important stuff, like what's for lunch . . . and will we have a choice of milk.

Cherie looks truly happy BHS, or is she smiling because it's 3:21 on Friday afternoon?

Senior Class Favorites

Having known each other for four years, it is still hard for the seniors to choose their class favorites. However, when it came down to the final decision, they chose (left to right) Tara Rozas, William Lyles, Ricky Brown, and LuSheka Christmas.

SENIOR
92
THE BEST OF THE CREW

As usual, the prom decorating crew is taking another break.

Misty, Tara, and Sherri definitely don't think three is a crowd.

Some Seniors take time out from their busy schedules to have their picture in the yearbook.

"Oh, PLEASE, Nick!"

Bunkie High's future Nobel Prize winners — Dustin, Keisha, Mistie, Mitzi, Rhonda, and Dale — rest their brains for a moment in Mrs. Sheila's physics class.

Ricky and Tonya, do these looks mean anything? Come on; y'all can tell us. We keep great secrets!

Just another exciting day in the courtyard, where everybody loves to act just a little bit wild and crazy in preparation for the weekend.

Kevin, did you have such a rough night that today Kendrick has to become a chair for you to sit on?

Please, John, have a little pity on Nick. He already gave you all the money he had.

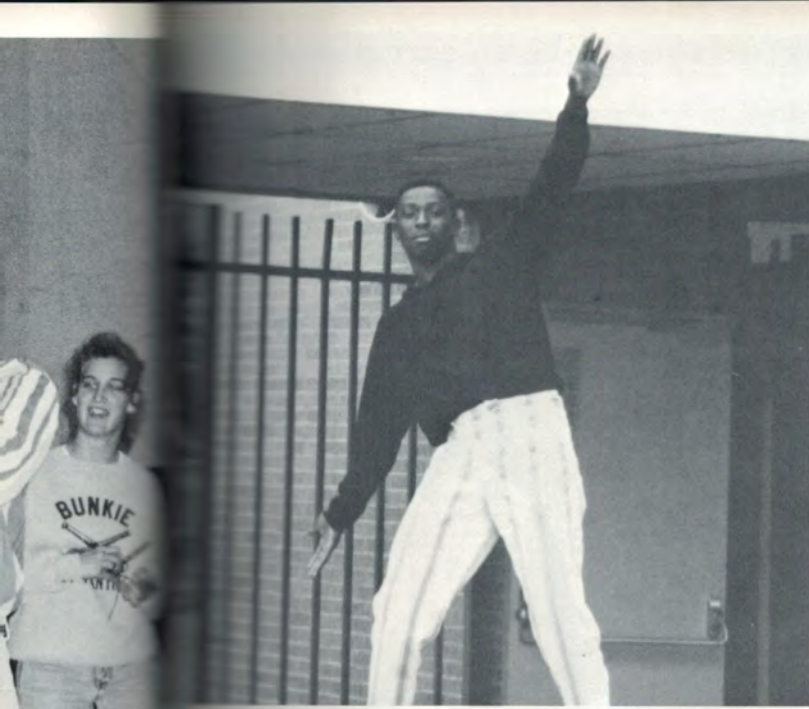

Wow! Look at Missy in a jungle full of Valentine's Day gifts for some of the lucky girls at school.

"We're just hanging out and having fun during one of the few lunch breaks we have before we graduate and go our separate ways."

Doesn't Mrs. Plauche's English IV class look anxious to study Chaucer and Milton and Keats and the list goes on and on!

Is Ricky practicing to play the role of Peter Pan so that he can fly away to Never-Neverland?

According to these guys, 40¢ is a small price to pay for a good case of indigestion. Where are those Roloids?

Lisa rocks her big baby after he's eaten his lunch. BURP!!

Here's one little crew just hanging out and being nutty together.

You can tell it's Monday morning 'cause everyone sits around and seriously discusses what happened over the weekend.

JUNIOR CLASS FAVORITES

Some of the Who's Who winners here were pleased to have been selected by their classmates, but others weren't so happy to have earned these "distinctions." All of them were good sports about it, though. The pictured winners are Photo A: BEST LOOKING-Reginald Augustine, Shay Lewis, Ben Callahan, & Terri Descant; B: BIGGEST FLIRTS-Mary Juneau & Reginald Augustine; C: MOST ATHLETIC-Lachanda Christmas, Jim Mixon, & Natalie Baker (Not pictured: Kenny Daniels); D: MOST INTELLIGENT-Melissa Hawkins & Fran Jeanson; E: CLASSIEST DRESSERS-Digger Earles & Shay Lewis; F: CLASS-CLOWN-Reginald Augustine; G: BIGGEST PARTY ANIMALS-John Borrel & Reginald Augustine; H: CLASS CLOWN-Michael Laborde.
