Dear Parishioners,

Merry Christmas! As we continue our solemn celebration of Christmas, in the midst of this Octave of Christmas, we take a moment to reflect on the Holy Family.

As Jesus was born to the Virgin Mary, and placed in the care of St. Joseph, we recall that God is blessing all families through them. They are the model for all families, and all families that seek the life of grace can find in the Holy Family all virtue modeled. May we follow the example well.

In the Gospel for this weekend, we hear of the finding in the temple. Perhaps it goes without saying, but the fact that St. Joseph and the Blessed Mother took part in the pilgrimage festival of Passover speaks volumes. After all, the child they loved and cared for was going to be the new Passover Lamb, the one who would take away the sins of the world, and yet they travelled. They made the journey of almost 90 miles either on foot or on the back of a donkey (horses were rarely rode by Jewish people). It would have taken a few days, and yet they came. They would have had to have lodging for the days of the celebration. Yet they came. Perhaps there we might find challenge to the hesitation some show to coming to Mass on a regular basis, finding an excuse too ready.

When the Blessed Mother and St. Joseph left, they assumed that Jesus was in the throng of those returning to Nazareth, only to find our Lord had stayed behind. They found Him amazing the scholars of the Law by His knowledge and understanding, while He was yet a boy. They understood that the Lord God had a special call for Him, and that raised Him to respond to that call. SO, in this, we have a wonderful model of support for vocations, too.

On a separate note, thank you for your prayers for my friend and her husband. I meet them our first year of college and am credited for introducing them to each other. He was on the same floor as I was, and she was in one of the same classes. Though I transferred after my first year, they sparked a friendship that flowered into a marriage. She passed peacefully on Sunday evening, surrounded by her family. May she rest in peace.

Thank you again for all the Christmas cards, gifts, and greetings. I am profoundly thankful.

In Christ,
Fr. Todd
