

Randolph County School System “STAR3 Students” for September 2023

Archdale Elementary School – Star³ Student – Aliyah Moore – 5th grade

We are proud to recognize Aliyah Moore as our STAR³ student for Archdale! Aliyah is consistently working hard to achieve the goals she has set. She is responsible and motivated to always do her best! Her teachers are constantly amazed at the perseverance she shows each day and her eagerness to grow. She helps her classroom peers when they need it. She is a caring individual who shows compassion to her siblings, teachers, and peers. We are extremely proud to have Aliyah Moore represent Archdale Elementary as our STAR³ student!

Hopewell Elementary School – Star³ Student – Wyatt Oldaker – 5th grade

We would like to nominate Wyatt Oldaker for the Star³ Student. She has really worked hard to persevere through the most difficult year of her life. She is a hard worker and a good friend and she always wants to do her best for her teachers and friends. She has shown kindness and compassion to others when they need it and she wants to make sure everyone feels welcome and included.

John Lawrence Elementary School – Star³ Student – Mason Reynolds – 4th grade

Mason is a hard-working student who always gives his all and tries his best while encouraging others to do the same. He demonstrates grit and determination to overcome setbacks. He is kind and compassionate, and always quick to assist a fellow student in need, whether it be with a smile, holding the door, or carrying books. His spirit lights up the room, bringing joy to all around him.

Mason is not only a star student, but an excellent friend and an overall star human being. We are very proud to have him as our Star³ student from John Lawrence Elementary School!

New Market Elementary School – Star³ Student – Joshua Roberts – 4th grade

New Market is proud to nominate Joshua Roberts for the Star Student Award. Joshua is a Star Student because of his never-give-up attitude, his ability to always smile (no matter the circumstance), and his determination to be the best he can be! Joshua is always positive and has a happy demeanor. He can make anyone laugh and loves to smile. He is always willing to try new things and never gives up when things get hard. He is a great friend to his peers, an excellent helper to adults, and serves as a great example of responsibility and leadership. He never gives up, asks great questions, and is truly a STAR Student. He brings lots of positive energy to our school! We are proud to have Joshua represent New Market Elementary as our STAR³ student.

Randolph Early College High School – Star³ Student – Zahira Paniagua Arroyo – 11th grade

Zahira is a bright spot every morning in American History class! She has a beautiful smile and is kind to everyone. Each day she listens attentively and engages in productive discussions with powerful insights! She always produces work of the highest quality and recently submitted a gorgeous hand-drawn poster as part of an assignment concerning the Mexican-American War. The extra time and care she takes with all her work is greatly appreciated and does not go unnoticed!

Trindale Elementary School – Star³ Student – Isley Jacobs – Kindergarten

Isley always comes to school with a big smile on her face and an even bigger positive attitude every day. She easily picks up new tasks and routines with ease and is starting to become a strong leader in the classroom. I can always rely on Isley to help me throughout the day. Congratulations to Isley Jacobs, Trindale's Star³ Student for September.

Trinity Elementary School – Star³ Student – Vincent Fantana – 5th grade

Trinity Elementary School's fifth-grade team has chosen Vincent Fantana as our STAR³ student. We've chosen him because he is a very bright, inquisitive, intelligent, and respectful young man. He is always prepared for class, a willing participant in lessons, and is a helping hand to his peers. He works to Think, Explore, and Succeed each and every day.

Trinity High School – Star³ Student – Mason Carter – 10th grade

Mason Carter has put in many extra hours to help out fellow classmates and staff members at Trinity High School. He volunteers without having to be asked and he always has a positive attitude about it. He does all of this while he juggles his time between athletic teams and club commitments. Mason acts as a good role model for younger students both at THS and the future Bulldogs at the middle school. He excels in the classroom and displays positive character traits that truly embody the Bulldog spirit. Congratulations to Mason on being selected as Trinity High School's STAR³ Student for September!

Trinity Middle School – Star³ Student – Anthony Merida – 7th grade

When you think of Anthony Merida, you smile. He always has a grin on his face and has the most infectious laughter. Anthony's love and enthusiasm for school lights up the room. He never hesitates to read out loud in class, loves coming up to the interactive board to share his answers, and gives his best effort on classwork and assessments. Before taking a test, he always says, "I got this!" Anthony is a wonderful self-advocate. He is persistent when facing a challenge and patient with staff as they learn and adjust to his unique learning style. Anthony encourages and motivates other students who are struggling in class. He does not let anything stop him from reaching his goals. Anthony is an office assistant, as well as a manager of the football team and baseball team. His positive outlook is an inspiration to his teachers and fellow classmates. Trinity Middle School is proud to select Anthony Merida as our first STAR³ Student of the 2023-2024 school year.

Wheatmore High School – Star³ Student – Danny Craig – 11th grade

Wheatmore High School is proud to announce Danny Craig as our Star³ student. Danny has an infectious personality and a spirit of kindness. Danny is one of the few students who maintained perfect attendance last year while achieving his academic goals. Danny excels as a member of both the football and the track teams. Coach Yarbrough states Danny Craig is everything you want in a student-athlete. He is the first to arrive, the last to leave, and the first one to ask if there is anything he can do to help out. Whether he's sweeping hallways before practice, putting up pads after practice, or teaching and encouraging other student-athletes during practice, Danny is always exemplifying what it means to be a team leader. Wheatmore High School is proud to recognize Danny Craig as Wheatmore's STAR³ student for September.

Wheatmore Middle School – Star³ Student – Katie Buckner – 8th grade

Katie is a truly exceptional student. She has an unwavering motivation for academic success and eagerly participates in class discussions and activities. Katie consistently demonstrates kindness and empathy toward her fellow classmates.
