'One Nation Under God': The Story of How God Was Added to America's Pledge of Allegiance

Americans observed "Flag Day" on Sunday, June 14, marking the adoption of the official U.S. flag by the Continental Congress in 1777. That day is also special for another historic moment. On that day in 1954, President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed legislation adding the words "One nation under God" to the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Pledge of Allegiance was written in August 1892 by Francis Bellamy, a Baptist minister and writer for a magazine called The Youth's Companion.

Canada adopts a controversial hate crimes bill

The legislation, which has passed its final vote and will now become law, removes the good faith religious expression defense from convictions for criminal hate speech. That means if you quote the Bible on homosexuality in Canada you could be sent to prison. Conservative Member of Parliament Brad Redekopp posted a statement on X calling the passage of the measure "a dark day for Canada and an assault on faith."

Stanford University makes its priorities clear

According to research by the Washington Free Beacon, the big California school is not doling out its grant money in a particularly even fashion. The Beacon reports that Stanford has given 175,000 dollars to the Muslim Student Union, which is more cash than it gave to ALL campus Christian groups COMBINED. The school also chose to grant 50,000 dollars to a student Drag Queen group, versus 10,000 to the campus veterans organization.

Chastity before marriage? No cohabitation? Data says couples who skip both may have stronger unions

Catholic priest says 70% of couples seeking pre-marital counseling at his Florida parish are living together.

A battle over the 10 Commandments is brewing in Texas

-Last month Rockwall County officials set up a monument bearing the Decalogue outside the courthouse. The Freedom From Religion Foundation wants them to tear it down and is threatening a lawsuit if they don't. The county is standing firm. First Liberty Institute, which represents Rockwall, says the 10 Commandments monument is almost identical to one that the U.S. Supreme Court approved at the state capital in Austin.

We are debtors, to proclaim the Gospel by the electronic media, as trustees of our stations. God has given us influence beyond anything our natural abilities or personal goals would suggest.

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

I listen to Power 88 every morning and afternoon. I work at Baldwin County High School. The last song I hear before I go into the school is usually the tune that I hum or sing all day. Occasionally a student will hear me and ask what I am singing. That is when I get to share with them that it is a Christian song that I was listening to on the radio. Your radio station has allowed me to be able to share Jesus with students and other teachers around me. Thank you for the wonderful feeling you leave inside my heart every day
