

Helping Students Succeed

Elementary counseling attempts to help all children get the most out of school.

Your support and cooperation can help make your child's school experience rewarding and successful.

It is our hope that parents and students feel free to use the services offered through our counseling program. I look forward to working with you.

Mrs. DiMauro

