Our Learning

Reading Skills Block: We will be reviewing skills we have learned throughout the entire year. We will also practice reading more.

Reading Module Block: We will be reviewing writing concepts we have learned throughout the year as well as practicing the parts of speech we have learned like nouns, verbs, adjectives, and prepositions.

Math: This week we are going to review addition/subtraction with in 5 to build more math fact fluency.

Science: This week we will explore more about the monarch butterflies.

Teacher's Note

- I am so proud of the kinders. They have been working so hard at the end of this year! They are ready for FIRST GRADE! I cannot believe it.
