Middle School Clinician

Kyle T. Gray spent most of his career in Florida directing choirs at the middle and high school level. Mr. Gray's choirs regularly performed in regional and district events and have been featured at state adjudication, state conferences, and performances around the Southeast. As a performer, he has been fortunate to perform with featured ensembles in Europe, Asia, and South America. He is currently preparing to perform and act as a featured guest conductor this summer with the Festival Singers of Florida as they travel to Nairobi, Kenya. Mr. Gray received his bachelor's degree in music education from the University of Florida, his master's degree in choral music education from Florida State University, and is currently pursuing his PhD in Music Education at the University of North Carolina Greensboro.

Peter Allen Haley is a candidate for the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Choral Conducting at The University of South Carolina. He previously spent seven years as Choir Director at East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, where he also served as Director of the Gaston County Choral Ensemble, and sang with the Charlotte Master Chorale and Chamber Singers. Peter holds degrees in music from Wingate University and Samford University and has the honor of being the second-best teacher in his house, behind his wife, Ashley, with whom he is a proud parent of Patrick and Libby Kay.
