

Two Randolph County music educators presented at the N.C. Music Educators Conference in Winston-Salem on November 4-8, 2022.

Chris Ferguson from Trinity Middle presented “Beginning Band Pacing: When the Shine Wears Off the Penny.” Topics included diverse student progress reports, warm-ups, and literature selections for beginning band.

Miranda Walker from Level Cross Elementary presented “Show Me What You Know.” Topics included tips and activities to implement student choice in the elementary music classroom.

