A Tribute To Betty Earnest

How calm and quiet a delight
Is it, alone,
To read and meditate and write,
By none offended, and offending none!
To walk, ride, sit, or sleep at one's own ease;
And, pleasing a man's self, none other
To displease.

FFA Freshmen Class – 1978

FFA NEWS

F The FFA got off to a great start this school year by electing officers. We elected Steve Gremillion, president; Ronnie Hardy, vice-president; Donna LaBorde, secretary; Ray Ducote, parliamentarian; Trent Murphy, reporter; and Paul Dauzat, treasurer.

F There were activities scheduled for almost every month in the school year. In September, we had the Freshman Bar-B-Que and a football dance. In October we continued having football dances and also had a magazine sale. A We also attended the State Fair. In November, we had the National Convention. December was also full with activities. There was the Parliamentary Law Contest, the Public Speaking Contest and we had the FFA-FHA Christmas Dance. In January, there was a Small Engine Contest and the FFA Pig Raffle.

In the closing months of school, we participated in the State Livestock Show, Youth Expo, Spring Bass Tournament. We are planning the annual FFA Banquet to wrap up the school year.

FBLA In New Orleans

FBLA NEWS

The FBLA's first project was selling candy along with dues collected which went towards a trip to New Orleans with the DECA Club on the last weekend in April. They went to the French Quarters, Bourbon Street, and Ponchartrain Beach. It turned out to be a great time.

Also, in February, the club went to the District IX Annual FBLA meet at Port Barre High School. All the members who went and participated in the many different business categories did an outstanding job. Their scores ranged from excellent to very good. The following members participated: Christine Dufour, Charity Batiste, Kim Marcotte, Tina Wolff, Sandy Strothers, Janice Guillory, Tina Lachney, Lisa Jeansonne, Brenda Cooper, Ann Cloninger, Roxanne Bordelon, Valencia Bacon, Laurie Roule, Sheila Keys, Donna Day, and Monica Williams.

At the helm for the FBLA this year were Donna Basco, President; Donna Day, Vice-President; and Laurie Roule, Treasurer.

DECA NEWS

At the beginning of the school year, we elected officers. They were: Paula Marcotte, president; Venience Robinson, vice-president; Camala Griffin, secretary; Philip Fanara, treasurer; and Jerry Lachney, reporter.

We had our annual "Boss Appreciation Banquet" in April. Trophys were awarded to Emmett Duplechain, Paula Newton, Bruce Williams, Venience Robinson, Angela Fogleman, and all other students on the DE Program for their achievements in DECA this year.

Our club also took a trip to New Orleans this year. We spent the week-end. Some of the places we visited were the Plaza Mall where we went ice skating, the French Quarters, & Ponchatrain Beach. We also went swimming in the Motel pool.

One of our major accomplishments this school year was to raise money and donate $500 towards a School Bulletin Board.

DRAMA NEWS

The Drama Club was very active this school year. One of the activities that we sponsored that was very successful was a Halloween Dance with a Spook House and featuring the disc jockey, Dr. F.M. of KTIZ Radio station.

Another one of our activities involved attending a Theater Festival Workshop at L.S.U. for aspiring young actors. This was very informative.

Some of the other activities we were involved in were the Speech Rally at Louisiana College, a Christmas Program, a Stage Production of McBeth in Marksville (we attended this), and we took an end of the year field trip to Baton Rouge. We had a great school year. Thanks to our sponsor.

BETA

Students with no letter grade lower than a B in college preparatory work are invited to membership in the National Beta Club, Bunka High's only organization whose membership is based on scholarship. Beta is also a service club with members assisting as ushers at school functions including baccalaureate and graduation.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS NEWS

The 1981-82 Industrial Arts Club would like to thank the Bunavola Staff for allowing us to present the winners at the Youth Expo. Our club didn't progress so fast as we had hoped, but we did succeed in the goal that we wanted to reach. Thank you.

KEY CLUB AWARD WINNER VALENCIA BACON

The Key Club Award is presented to the two outstanding 4-H'ers in Avoyelles Parish each year at the Parish Achievement Day. It is presented in recognition of outstanding contributions to 4-H Club work through leadership, citizenship, and community service. It was presented to Valencia on March 3, 1982 at Hessmer High School Auditorium in Hessmer, La.

4-H NEWS

The 4-H Club elected the following officers: Rolanda Griffin, President; William Holts, vice-president; Theresa Cohran, secretary; Keisha Triplett, assistant secretary; Wytona Johnson, reporter; and Diedra Green, Treasurer.

The club was the host for the Junior Leadership meeting in the month of February. The theme was "Happy Valentine". The 4-H'ers held a record book workshop at the middle school to help the 4-H members there get ready for Achievement Day — which was held March 12, at Hessmer High School. At Achievement Day, Valencia Bacon received the Key Club Award, placed first in consumer education, girls good grooming, and Home Economics. Jerrell Sterling placed first in Boys Good Grooming, Wytona Johnson placed first in Home Economics and second in Health Improvement. Kevin Ambres placed second in Petroleum Power and third in Livestock Judging. All of these members will attend Short-course at LSU from June 22-25. The club is taking a field trip to Baton Rouge, La. on May 19.

TRUMPET NEWS

The officers for the TRUMPET were Faye LaBorde, editor; Kalisha Augustine, sports; Ellen Newton, art; Mandy LaPrairie, clubs; and Valencia Bacon, photographer.

The TRUMPET staff was hard at work this past school year putting out the paper. From October, 1981 to March, 1982, the TRUMPET staff was busy gathering articles, writing editorials, and getting the news around Bunkie High. Our advisor was MRS. LUCILLE STONE.
