VII. BOARD/SUPERINTENDENT COMMENTS

- A. Board Members K.Willis- All fall sporting events seemed very well attended this year, home and away. M.Thompson- Learned a lot attending the OSBA conference this month, enjoyed the experience. K.Harris- Noted while attending the OSBA conference hearing some of the awful stories other districts have with their board members, makes very appreciative of CSD board members, "Thank you".
- B. Superintendent Danielle Hudson -ODE is giving mixed messages about the budget and possible upcoming cuts 3.5-5% Asked that community & board members express to their legislators to use the account funds that are capped out for education be used and released for the purpose of education. Unified basketball is starting out strong, enough students at the elementary level have enrolled for 2 teams. January 24 the teams will participate in the unified basketball tournament in Forest Grove. Will Seals will be attending next month's meeting to present information about the CES boiler. Shout to Will and his team, as they have been staying on top of the boiler issues and trying to problem solve solutions.
