History

Southwestern Randolph Middle School (SWRMS) was built in 1990 in the shadow of the Uwharrie Mountains. It is located in a rural community of people who demonstrate strong support for the school and for efforts made to positively impact the experiences that students have in the southwest corner of Randolph County.

SWRMS started out as a massive middle school that once served over 1100 students in the late 1990's and early 2000's. Uwharrie Middle School was built in 2002 to offset some of the population and in anticipation of growing enrollment. Today our school serves approximately 530 students but the community's support of "Cougar Nation" remains as strong as ever.
