

Terrie Sanford Long Memorial Scholarship

Sponsored by Edward Jones: Financial Advisor Amanda Payne

Terrie S. Long was a strong supporter of the Fannin County agriculture programs and dedicated many years of volunteering and sponsoring to the Fannin County FFA Organization, the Fannin County FFA Alumni Organization, and the Fannin County Young Farmer Association. This scholarship has been dedicated in her memory to support students that have gone through these programs while they take the next step in their education.

Graduating seniors or college freshmen that have been a member of the Fannin County FFA Organization or the Fannin County Young Farmers Association may apply.

The amount of scholarships given may vary each year as well as the amount of scholarship money given.

Scholarships given to high school seniors will be announced at Fannin County High School Scholarship night. Any Scholarships given to college freshmen will be announced and received at the Fannin County High School FFA Banquet.

The 2024 scholarship(s) will be awarded to two applicants- both receiving 1,000 dollars to be sent to the college or university that the applicants intend to attend(or already attend) in order to help pay for tuition or room and board.

Scholarships applications are due April 7, 2025
