

7th Grade Summer Reading Assignments

Oxford Middle School

Dear Students,

Welcome! We look forward to an engaging learning experience in 7th grade ELA. Below are the guidelines for your summer reading project. You are required to read two books of your choosing this summer and complete one choice project.

For one book you have read, be prepared to participate in a class activity on Friday, August 30, 2024. Participation in this activity will demonstrate your understanding of the book. If possible, please bring in the book for use during the activity.

For the second book you have read, you must complete the below project in digital format. Your completed project must include a cover page, one of the choice activities listed below, and a works cited page. This project must be completed and submitted by Wednesday, September 4, 2024, in Google Classroom. Your ELA teacher will provide the Classroom code the first week of school.

Cover Page

Please include the following components for a cover page for your project:

- a. Title of your independent reading book
- b. Author of your independent reading book
- c. Genre of your independent reading book
- d. Your name
- e. Your class period

Project Choices

1. Newspaper Article: Take this chance to let your inner journalist shine. Identify the major conflict (problem) in your book of choice. Then, turn that conflict into an action-packed news story. Adhere to the following guidelines:
 - Article consists of three paragraphs (7-10 sentences each paragraph) and fits on standard 8 ½ x 11 size paper.
 - Article includes the who, what, when, where, and why in descriptive detail using specific textual evidence from the book.
 - The article must include the features of a newspaper (photo with caption, title of article, your name as the author, name of your newspaper, article is clear and easy to read, free from errors in spelling/grammar, article is typed in Times New Roman 12 pt. font).
2. Alternate Ending: Have you ever loved a book but hated the ending? Well, this is your chance to make things right. For this assignment, you get to step into the shoes of the author and rewrite the ending. Adhere to the following guidelines:

- Write a two paragraph (7-10 sentences each paragraph) summary of the book with the original ending.
 - Rewrite your version of the ending to include descriptions of the setting and characters, dialogue, and a NEW solution to the problem that was present in the book.
 - The new ending must be a paragraph (7-10 sentences) or longer.
 - Rewrite must be free from errors in spelling/grammar.
 - Rewrite is typed in Times New Roman 12 pt. Font.
3. Comic Strip: Who says comics are for kids? Take your novel of choice and turn it into an artistic masterpiece! Check out these websites for some comic strip templates or help with creating the strip (www.storyboardthat.com or www.toondoo.com). Adhere to the following guidelines:
- Comic must include a minimum of 8 scene squares.
 - First scene square must contain student name, title of the book, and author of the book.
 - Each stage of the plot must be represented on the comic strip (exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution).
 - Each scene square must include pictures and speech bubbles.
 - Comic should be completed neatly and in full color.
4. Character Analysis: Time to meet the characters you love (or love to hate). Using Google Slides, provide a closer look at the character in the novel. Adhere to the following guidelines:
- Presentation must include an analysis of three characters.
 - Each analysis must include the character's name, three character traits with textual evidence from the text to illustrate each trait, picture (use descriptions from the book to find a picture of what the character could look like).
 - Presentation must be free from errors in spelling/grammar.

Works Cited

Please create a works cited page for any source (audio, visual, novel) that you use for your project. Your page MUST be in proper MLA format.
