CATECHESIS Q & A: DEEPENING OUR KNOWLEDGE

"What Does the Church Teach About Consulting Astrology/Horoscopes?"

By Ruben Beltran (Confirmation Coordinator)

Since the beginning of time, people have looked to the heavens to discern their fates. The pagan world was ruled by belief in astrology. Pagans believed that the stars were deities or that they were controlled by deities. For instance, Apollo was the god of the sun, and his sister Diana was the goddess of the moon. In fact all of the planets in our solar system are named after gods (Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn).

Because of this common pagan belief, the Old Testament contains repeated injunctions against star-worship (Deuteronomy 4:19, 17:3; 2 Kings 17:16, 21:3-5, 23:4; Jeremiah 8:2, 19:12-13; Zephaniah 1:4-6). Today, the practice of astrology is still going strong, especially amongst teens. You cannot open a magazine or surf the web without running into a section on Horoscopes. It's always some weirdo giving vague predictions of how your relationships are going or what future business opportunities to take. So what does the Catholic Church say when it comes to Astrology and Horoscopes?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "All forms of divination are to be rejected: recourse to Satan or demons, conjuring up the dead, or other practices falsely supposed to 'unveil' the future. Consulting horoscopes, astrology, palm reading, interpretation of omens and lots, the phenomena of clairvoyance, and recourse to mediums all conceal a desire for power over time, history and, in the last analysis, other human beings, as well as a wish to conciliate hidden powers. They contradict the honor, respect, and loving fear that we owe to God alone" (CCC 2116).

Many times people will tell me that consulting their horoscope is all in good fun, but The Catechism makes it very clear that ALL forms of divination are condemned—no matter how innocent it may seem. Most of these astrologers, mediums, and necromancers (those who say they can speak to the dead) have been shown to be frauds; and those who appear to have these abilities gain their powers from malicious spirits.

The Church Fathers were aware of this and were quick to attribute it to demons. We must be very careful as Catholics to not fall into superstitious beliefs. We must avoid all temptation to want to know and control our future. If we do not, we will fall into the same trap Satan set for Adam and Eve. Like our first parents, through pride, we wish to grasp at the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge and become "like God". We must fight this temptation at all cost and trust in Christ. We must ignore the storms of life and focus on the King of kings, never being distracted. If we do not, we are doomed to sink as Peter did (Matthew 14:22-33).

So next time someone asks you what your sign is, simply respond, "the Cross".

THE FRENCH REVOLUTION

Legend of the Candy Cane

Look at the Candy Cane
What do you see?
Stripes that are red
Like the blood shed for me.

White is for my Savior
Who is sinless and pure!
“J” is for Jesus my Lord,
that’s for sure!

Turn it around
And a staff you will see
Jesus my shepherd
Was born for ME!

St. Therese Parish will host an encore presentation of a nationally-talked-about docudrama entitled, “The Hidden Rebellion,” on Saturday, January 14, at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. At its first showing earlier this month, and the Hall was filled!

Discover the dark side of the French Revolution and how modern persecution started, followed by the resistance of Catholics in both Europe and America. This is an engaging drama, full of substance, hope, and courage. It has been endorsed by Cardinal Raymond Burke, aired by EWTN, and presented by Ignatius Press--a Catholic blockbuster in the making! The movie will be followed by a Question and Answer session with its Franco-American producer, Daniel Rabourdin. Beverage and snacks will be available.

All attendees will receive a raffle ticket for a special prize. A donation is suggested of $10 per adult; $1 per child (12 years and over please!).

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

"Where is the new-born King of the Jews?" inquired the three Magi of Herod, king of Jerusalem.

"Where is He?" they repeat in their great desire to find Him. "We have seen His star in the East, and we have come to adore Him. Ah, tell us where He is; we desire so much to see Him; we have made so long a journey in order to become acquainted with Him!"

Now there is no need to travel far or to make many inquiries to find Him. He is, as we know by faith, in our churches, not far from our homes. The Magi could find Him in one place only; we can find Him in every part of the world, wherever the Blessed Sacrament is kept. Are we then not happier than those who lived at the time of our Savior Himself?

-Fr. Michael Muller, CSSR

SCRIPTURE & TRADITION

THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM: The tale of the magi from the East has much to teach us about what we can come to expect. Bethlehem was a tiny town, yet it was in this seemingly insignificant place that the guiding star stops in its own search for the place where the Savior would be born. Too often we fail to recognize the fact that the star of Bethlehem comes to rest in our everyday lives, where we can experience God's presence in ever-new ways. Epiphany calls us to recognize the One who comes to save us.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION: This year, in the United States, the celebration of the Epiphany falls on January 8, though its traditional date is January 6. That date was established as the solstice in Egypt in 1996 BC, but the Egyptian calendar lost a full day every 128 years. Twenty centuries later the actual solstice had migrated to December 25. By the time of the early Church, the whole period of twelve days was celebrated just about everywhere. Christians began to celebrate Christ as the true light of the world in four themes: the Nativity, the Manifestation to the Gentiles, the Baptism of the Lord, and the wedding feast at Cana. That was entirely too much for one day to handle! Thus early Christian celebrations of the Christmas season extended from one date for the solstice, December 25, to the Epiphany on January 6. The darkest time in the Northern Hemisphere could now be filled with the Christian observance of the arrival of the Light of the World.
