

Our Class Newsletter

★ January 13-17, 2025

★ UPCOMING DATES

-January 20th- no school (MLK, Jr. day)
-January 23rd- 100th day of school! We would like to encourage all students to dress on a theme for the 100th day to add to the fun and excitement! This could be dressing as a 100-year-old or decorating a shirt with 100 items!.

★ REMINDERS

- All transportation notes must be turned in with students' folder or to the office. We can't accept changes on the phone, via Remind, or email.
-Students MUST wear closed-toed shoes for P.E. Coaches will not allowed students on the new playground without closed-toed shoes.
-We do have a friend with a peanut allergy. Please do not send your child to school with anything with peanuts or nuts. Thank you for your help!

★ SUPPORTING YOUR STUDENT AT HOME

Start working on counting big number of objects at home. Have your child group them into groups of ten to help with number base ten at home. For example, give them elbow noodles. They can divide them into five groups of ten with 7 extra. Five tens and 7 ones equals 57! Use cotton balls, Cheerios, even Legos!

★ OUR LEARNING

Reading- I can make connections while I read. I can understand the central message (moral) of a story. I can describe a character using key details.
Phonics- I can read and write words with soft c and soft g. I can read and write words with long i, silent e.
Writing: I can write an opinion text. I can use conjunctions.
Math- I can count and write numbers 1-120. I can add and subtract within 20. I can find the missing part in equations. I can identify tens and ones in numbers to 50.
Science/Social Studies- I can discuss Martin Luther King, Jr. and his importance in history.
