

Coconino County Superintendent of Schools, Cheryl Mango-Paget to conduct Prospective Governing Board Informational Sessions

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. - Coconino County Superintendent of Schools, Cheryl Mango-Paget, would like to announce that she will be conducting prospective Governing Board Informational Sessions for anyone who may want to run for an open seat for the Page Unified School District Governing Board. There will be two four-year seats open for this year's election.

- March 14, Page Unified School District, Page District Office, Board Room, 1pm-3pm 500 S Navajo Dr, Page, AZ, 86040

Superintendent Cheryl Mango-Paget will be hosting this session for new and prospective Board Members at no cost. If you are interested in running for an open Governing Board Seat in 2022, please join us at one of our sessions this March. This is a time to glean information regarding participating on a School Governing Board, fill out required documents if desired, ask Superintendent Cheryl Mango-Paget questions, or just come and grab your Governing Board Packet. No appointment is required.

For more information, please call the Office of the Coconino County School Superintendent at 928-679-8070 or email: mcampbell@coconino.az.gov .
