A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION:

Dear Parents, while you are the primary catechists of your children, religious education is a necessary extension and support of the foundation that has been laid in the home. If your children are not in a Catholic school, they should be in a Catholic faith formation program. Religious education classes are not simply for children preparing to make their First Communion; rather, they begin in pre-school and then continue through the two-year First Communion preparation, and then all the way through Eighth Grade. Then, in high school, your children begin the two-year program to prepare to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, as well as become involved in Youth Ministry. We urge you to take your children's spiritual lives seriously and register them in a Catholic faith formation program! May God bless you and your children! —Rhonda Storey

PARISH MINISTRIES / NEWS:

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

“The presence of Jesus in the Eucharist is proof that His love for us has no sunset. He puts into our hearts the desire to live close to Him. The stresses and hurts and partings of life often bear down on us, and we may tend to feel alone as when the sun has gone down. The words of St. Augustine can lift us: ‘He neither rises nor sets because He abides always.’ So our lives do not have to go down into the shadows. It was at evening time that the Risen Lord restored the desolate spirits of two disciples by revealing His presence to them ‘in the breaking of the Bread.’ They pleaded with Him “Stay with us, for it is towards evening.” (Lk 24,29). We too can plead with him, ‘Lord, be with us, both at sunrise and at sunset.’ ”

--Msgr. John Moloney, P.P. Dublin, Ireland

WARRIOR INTERCESSORS FOR PRIESTS:

“Jesus, our dear Mother, my little angel, St. Joseph, and our father, St. Francis, are almost always with me.” —St. Padre Pio (Feast Day: September 23)

The Communion of Saints is a reality. Heaven, Hell, and Purgatory are also very real. Priests, like St. Padre Pio (St. Pio of Pietrelcina), live that reality in order to bring souls into the reality of Heaven. Let us live, as St. Padre Pio did, praying, hoping and acting in a manner so that one day we can live in eternity with the Triumphant Church!

Join us every Thursday at 8:00 p.m. in the church to pray for priests. For more information, you may contact Blanca at rekindledwarrior@gmail.com or 281-7070.
