Mrs. Amanda Parker Named Principal of Bonaire Primary School

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Mrs. Amanda Parker was named the Principal of Bonaire Primary School during the Houston County Board of Education meeting held December 9, 2025. Parker is currently an Assistant Principal at Bonaire Primary and Bonaire Elementary Schools. She will begin this new role in January when current Bonaire Primary principal Dr. Ashley Watkins begins her new role as the Coordinator of District & School Effectiveness for the Houston County School District.

“I am incredibly grateful for the opportunity to continue to serve the community that I love in this new capacity,” said Parker. “Thank you to Dr. Rogers and the entire Board of Education for entrusting me with the honor and privilege of leading such an incredible team. I am so excited to continue a legacy of excellence at Bonaire Primary School! Greatness Starts Here!”

Prior to joining Bonaire Primary and Bonaire Elementary School, Parker was a school counselor in Castle Rock, Colorado. Parker previously served as an Assistant Principal of Langston Chapel Elementary School in Bulloch County for three years. With a combined 18 years in education, she also has experience as a third and fourth grade teacher.

She graduated from Georgia Southern University with a bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education. She went on to earn a master's degree in Elementary Reading and Math from Walden University. After teaching in Statesboro, Georgia for seven years, Mrs. Parker earned a M.Ed. in School Counseling from Georgia Southern University. She served as a school counselor in Statesboro, Georgia before earning her specialist degree in Educational Leadership.

She and her husband, Stan, are proud parents of two girls.

Bonaire Primary School is located at 535 Thompson Mill Road in Bonaire. For more information about the school, visit <https://bps.hcbe.net/>.
