GAME 6

RANDOLPH AT INGRAM

INGRAM TOM MOORE HIGH, 7 P.M. OCT. 4, 2024

The Warriors face their toughest test of the season but against a team that has shown some vulnerabilities in its first five games. The Randolph Ro-Hawks are 5-0 but have played in one tight game after another. Four of Randolph's five games have been decided by a touchdown, with the largest margin of victory at 11 points. Randolph defeated Blanco in week 2, 19-12. Ingram is coming off a tough 42-28 loss at Brady to complete a three-game road swing. It was Ingram Tom Moore's best offensive performance of the season with 351 yards of total offense, including a season-best 155-yard three-touchdown effort by senior Kye Hightower. Quarterback Logan Spalding threw for 145 yards, 14-of-21 passing, with two TDs and an interception. Ingram gave up 321 rushing yards against Brady, but there were several positives for the Warriors, who were short-handed on defense. The Warriors have struggled converting on third down all season, but were 5-of-11 against Brady. For the first time this season, Ingram held a ball-control advantage by running 62 plays to Brady's 48. However, Ingram's two turnovers proved costly. Defensively, Ingram received another strong effort from Bowden Zipp, who had 10 tackles, and Daniel Kelly had an interception with six tackles. Angus McLaughlin recorded Ingram's lone sack and tackle for loss. Keithan Garcia had seven tackles. Last season, Ingram
