GREELEYVILLE STEAM ACADEMY'S STUDENT MADE PERFECT SCORE ON SCREADY READING AND MATH

Kayron Pechu, a current fourth-grade student at Greeleyville STEAM Academy (GSA), scored perfectly on the SCREADY Reading and Mathematics assessments during the Spring administration. Kayron attributes his success to “studying and listening to his teachers.” He expressed that he felt “proud of himself and excited” when he learned about his results. The incentives shared by his school for achieving high scores motivated him to perform well. Kayron is pleased with his perfect score and offers some advice to fellow students regarding standardized testing: “Don’t sweat it. Just study, but don’t focus too much on the test—go with the flow.” He encourages others to work hard, study, and remain calm. He is the son of Penekeh and Muma Pechu of Greeleyville, SC.
