

Randolph County School System

“STAR³ Students” for October 2021

Franklinville Elementary School - Kaydence Henley - 4th Grade

Kaydence Henley strives for excellence in all that she does at Franklinville Elementary School. Kaydence is safe, shows ownership, is attentive, and is respectful of both students and teachers. She always raises her hand, waits her turn to speak, and uses kind words. Kaydence can even be found helping her classmates with their work or offering them support and cheering them on. At the end of the day, Kaydence goes out of her way to clean the classroom and organize the Chromebooks, making sure they are charging correctly for the next day. Congratulations to Kaydence Henley for being Franklinville’s STAR³ Student for October.

Grays Chapel Elementary School - Sherlyn Suarez-Leiva - 5th Grade

Sherlyn Suarez-Leiva is a perfect example of a STAR³ Student. She has shown motivation, not only academically, but also in helping others. While in the classroom, Sherlyn always steps up to help when she sees others struggling. She is a friend to all, no matter who the student is or what needs they have. In addition to our normal class, Sherlyn also helps with our special friends from other rooms. She sees everyone as special and wants them to have everything they deserve. Sherlyn gives up things herself to see others smile. Grays Chapel Elementary School’s is proud to have Sherlyn Suarez-Leiva as our STAR³ Student for October.

Level Cross Elementary School - Owen Meck - 4th Grade

Owen Meck is a true example of a student who is respectful, responsible, and always doing the right thing. He is respectful toward others and always has a kind word for his teachers. He completes his assignments in a timely manner and constantly wants to make sure he does his work correctly. Owen is always ready to learn and lend a helping hand. His behavior is top-notch. We are blessed to have Owen Meck at Level Cross Elementary School and are pleased to recognize him as our STAR³ Student for October.

Liberty Elementary School - Holden Wright - 5th Grade

Holden Wright has been working hard during the beginning of his fifth grade school year. When faced with challenges, Holden has shown perseverance. He is always willing to lend a helping hand to his peers and teachers. He comes to school every morning with a smile and a hug! Holden Wright’s big heart and drive to do his best make his fellow Liberty Bulldogs proud of him and his recognition as our STAR³ Student for October.

Northeastern Randolph Middle School - Bobby Gibson - 8th Grade

Bobby Gibson truly exemplifies what it means to be a star. He is thoughtful and courteous to all of his peers. His core teachers see his diligence with his work and tasks, proving that he is dependable and consistent with his academics. On the field, Bobby is a determined athlete - one who is kind and loyal to his teammates, but driven to succeed. He is an intelligent, hard-working student who inspires his peers to be better every day. Northeastern Randolph Middle School recognizes Bobby Gibson for his integrity and spirit, and is extremely proud to have him represent us as a Husky and as our STAR³ Student for October.

Providence Grove High School - Katelyn Robbins - 12th Grade

Katelyn Robbins is an extremely hard-working student in the classroom, online classes, and FFA. She is dedicated to doing the right thing. Katelyn has taken on extra college classes to graduate with a high school diploma and an associate degree. Katelyn's teachers rave about her work ethic and determination in reaching her goals. Her talents are evident in her academics, leadership roles, volunteer work, and part-time jobs. She is the owner and operator of Kate's Critter Care, where she provides care to animals while their owners are out. Undoubtedly, her goals and dreams will come to fruition due to her focus on academics and passion for animals. Providence Grove High School is proud and excited to name Katelyn Robbins as our STAR³ Student for October.

Ramseur Elementary School - Phoenix Milligan - 5th Grade

Phoenix Milligan always takes pride in what he does, from completing his work to being responsible for the raising and lowering of our flag. Everything he does is with great enthusiasm and he is always willing to try new things and look at situations with a different perspective. He is supportive to students and to staff and strives to be his best, even in the midst of conflict. Phoenix is always eager and ready for what may be next in the classroom and embraces any challenge. He has a gift for finding the good in people and situations. His love and devotion to his family give him a strong foundation and confidence in who he is. Our classroom contract states that "I will be supportive. I will be my best. I will be prepared." Phoenix Milligan embodies all three of these, and Ramseur Elementary is proud to have him as our STAR³ Student for October.

Randleman Elementary School - Laylah Morales - 2nd Grade

Laylah Morales is a sweet, kind, helpful, and very smart student. As a bus rider at Randleman Elementary School, Laylah was unbelievably helpful during the bus route when a new substitute driver and monitor were on her bus. She knew every stop on the route as well as every student's name. Laylah helped relieve the nervousness of the sub driver and the monitor. Laylah's teacher, Ms. Plumlee, says Laylah is a great reader and a natural leader in the class. She is very friendly and always tries to include others at all times. Laylah is a wonderful student who really loves learning and doing her best, and is very eager to learn new things. We are proud to have Laylah Morales as a part of our Tiger family, and congratulate her on being selected Randleman Elementary School's STAR³ Student for October.

Randleman High School - Ben Pearn - 12th Grade

Ben Pearn spreads positive energy to everyone he comes into contact with each day. Whether sharing an old country song, discussing a topic in class, or volunteering with our custodial staff, he radiates kindness and joy from a job well done. Ben models good manners daily, opening doors for his fellow students and teachers and greeting everyone with encouragement. One of our staff members says that even behind his mask, "You know Ben is smiling because you can see it in the twinkle in his eyes." Ben loves getting work hours, helping others, working with animals, and learning new information. His spirit motivates others to work hard and to focus on the positive. Ben is a dedicated student, hard worker, and dependable volunteer, and Tiger Nation is proud to recognize his good character and dedication. Randleman High School is honored to recognize Ben Pearn as our STAR³ Student for October.

Randleman Middle School - Keoni Arce Leon - 8th Grade

Honesty, integrity, and a willingness to do the right thing are three characteristics that describe Keoni Arce Leon. He is a responsible, dedicated student who works diligently in class and is a model for others. Keoni is kind and caring, treats his teachers and classmates with respect and sets high standards for himself academically. He has a high level of integrity both in and out of the classroom. Recently, he found a large amount of cash in the hallway. He did the right thing by turning it in to a staff member. Both his peers and teachers appreciate his positive attitude. Keoni regularly personifies the positive qualities we seek in our students at Tiger Nation. It is with great pleasure we select Keoni Arce Leon as Randleman Middle School's STAR³ Student for October.
