GOOD NEWS REPORT

Millbrooke Elementary, Freedom Elementary, Indian Hills Elementary, and University Heights Academy all participated in the Academic Team Meet that was held at Millbrooke Elementary. Our school came in 2nd place overall. Thank you to Evan Henderson and Robin Crosby for everything you do for the Academic Team. Regionals will be in a couple of weeks.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT / PLANNING

Mrs. Owen went over Mastery Connect and Benchmark Assessment with the council.

POLICY REVIEW

Mrs. Owen presented the Wellness Policy to the council. A motion was made and passed by consensus to make a couple of changes to this policy. This will be the first reading.

Mrs. Cannon talked to the council about the wellness team. They attend to our student's social, emotional, and physical health. We will be having a Wellness night on March 9th along with our Book Fair.

Mrs. Owen also presented the Planning and Resolution of Issues Regarding Instructional Practices Policy to the council. A motion was made and passed by consensus to make a couple of changes to this policy. This will serve as the first reading.

TITLE I

Jennifer P'Pool was hired as a part time interventionist using Title I funds. However, the special education numbers have risen for all 3 special education teachers. By law we cannot exceed the cap. Mrs. Michelle Ladd, who is over our district special ed services, was contacted. She approved for us to hire a part time special ed teacher. Mrs. P'Pool was then transferred to this position.

FINANCIAL

SAF - $18,866.79

DAF - $33,900.67

SBDM - $5,262.71

PRINCIPAL COMMENTS

- Fourth grade Lunch and Learn was held. We had a fabulous turn out and talked to parents about KSA.
- Wellness Night will be March 9th.
- KSA Awards will be held March 4th and 5th.
- March 15 – 4H Speech Competition
- March 30 are our site visits
- The second round of District Benchmarks Assessments will be held in March.

SET NEXT MEETING DATE
