NEW HIRE PAYROLL PACKET

This packet is to be completed by employees prior to the first day of assignment at Frazier School District. This packet is for individuals hired to part-time assignment in which candidates are not eligible for benefits. This includes coaches, substitutes, and teacher aides. A driver's license and Social Security card will also be required. Alternate documentation is acceptable according to the List of Acceptable Documents (Form I-9) enclosed. Please bring original, valid identification to the Business Office along with this packet so copies can be made.

All employees of Frazier School District must provide an active email address as part of this new hire paperwork. Personal email will be necessary if email is not provided to you in your new role by the District. This is required for communications between the new hire and PSERS (Public School Employees' Retirement System). Please be advised, the email you provide should be checked regularly.

Updated clearances are required in the Superintendent's Office if not provided at time of application.

Please contact 724-736-9507 Ext. 110 with questions.

Form W-4

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
Give Form W-4 to your employer.
Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

OMB No. 1545-0074

Step 1: Enter Personal Information

(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov.
City or town, state, and ZIP code

(c) ☐ Single or Married filing separately
☐ Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse
☐ Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, other details, and privacy.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Reserved for future use.

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate . . . . . ☐

TIP: If you have self-employment income, see page 2.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits

If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):

Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____

Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 . . . . . $ _____

Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here . . . . . 3 $

Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments

(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income . . . . . 4(a) $

(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here . . . . . 4(b) $

(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . . 4(c) $

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.) Date

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2023 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2022 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2023. You had no federal income tax liability in 2022 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2022 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2023 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2024.

Your privacy. If you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c).

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay income and self-employment taxes through withholding from your wages, you should enter the self-employment income on Step 4(a). Then compute your self-employment tax, divide that tax by the number of pay periods remaining in the year, and include that resulting amount per pay period on Step 4(c). You can also add half of the annual amount of self-employment tax to Step 4(b) as a deduction. To calculate self-employment tax, you generally multiply the self-employment income by 14.13% (this rate is a quick way to figure your self-employment tax and equals the sum of the 12.4% social security tax and the 2.9% Medicare tax multiplied by 0.9235). See Pub. 505 for more information, especially if the sum of self-employment income multiplied by 0.9235 and wages exceeds $160,200 for a given individual.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2023 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables.

1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 . . . . . 1 $

2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a . . . . . 2a $

b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b . . . . . 2b $

c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c . . . . . 2c $

3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3

4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld) . . . . . 4 $

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

1 Enter an estimate of your 2023 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income . . . . . 1 $

2 Enter:
- $27,700 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse
- $20,800 if you're head of household
- $13,850 if you're single or married filing separately

. . . . . 2 $

3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-" . . . . . 3 $

4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information . . . . 4 $

5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4 . . . . . 5 $

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES IN CASE OF WORK-RELATED INJURIES

1. If you suffer a work-related injury, your employer or its insurance company must pay for reasonable surgical and medical services and supplies, orthopedic appliances and prosthesis, including training in their use.
2. In order to insure that your medical treatment will be paid for by your employer or the insurance company, you must select from one of the following health care providers.
3. You must continue to visit one of the physicians listed below, if you need treatment, for ninety (90) days from the date of your first visit.
4. If one of the persons below refers you to another licensed specialist, your employer or their insurer will pay the bill for these services.
5. After this ninety- (90) day period, if you still need treatment and your employer has provided a list as set forth below, you may choose to go to another health care provider for treatment. You should notify your employer of this action within five days of your visit to said provider.
6. If a physician on the list prescribes invasive surgery, you may obtain a second opinion from any physician of your choice. If the second opinion is different than the listed physicians opinion, you may determine which course of treatment to follow; however, the second opinion must contain a specific and detailed treatment plan. If you choose the second opinion, the procedures in that opinion must be performed by one of the physicians on the list for the first ninety- (90) days. Therefore, in this situation, the employee may be required to treat with an employer-designated provider for up to 180 days.
7. If you are faced with a medical emergency, you may secure assistance from a hospital, physician, or health care provider of your choice for your work-related injury. However, when the emergency is resolved, you must seek treatment from a provider listed below.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION INFORMATION

To All Employees:

The workers' compensation law provides wage loss and medical benefits to employees who cannot work, or who need medical care, because of a work-related injury.

Benefits are required to be paid by your employer if self-insured, or through insurance provided by your employer. Your employer is required to post the name of the company responsible for paying workers' compensation benefits at its primary place of business and at its sites of employment in a prominent and easily accessible place. It is also required to be posted in any areas used for treatment of injured employees or for the administration of first aid.

You should report immediately any injury or work-related illness to your employer. Your benefits could be delayed or denied if you do not notify your employer immediately.

If your claim is denied by your employer, you have the right to request a hearing before a Workers' Compensation Judge.

The Bureau of Workers' Compensation cannot provide legal advice. However, you may contact the Bureau of Workers' Compensation for additional general information:

EMPLOYEE'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FORM UNDER SECTION 306(f)(1)(i) OF THE PENNSYLVANIA WORKER'S COMPENSATION ACT

I recognize and agree that my employer has provided a list of at least six (6) designated health care providers, no more than two (2) of whom are coordinated care organizations and no fewer than three (3) of whom are physicians. Therefore, I acknowledge that I must treat with one of these health care providers for ninety (90) days from the date of my first visit. If I fail to treat with one of these designated health care providers, I understand that my employer will not be liable for the payment for services rendered during this ninety (90) day period. Subsequent treatment may be provided by any health care provider of my choice. However, I must advise my employer within five (5) days of my first visit to each and every non-designated health care provider. Failure to do so may affect whether my employer is liable for payment for services rendered prior to appropriate notice.

My employer has informed me of my rights and duties, and my signature acknowledges that I have been so informed and that I understand my rights and duties.

About PSERS

PSERS is a governmental, cost-sharing, multiple-employer pension plan to which public school employers, the Commonwealth, and school employees (members) contribute. Once you qualify for membership, you will have the option to elect one of two membership classes consisting of defined benefit (DB) and defined contribution (DC) components or a standalone DC membership class.

PSERS Defined Benefit (DB) Plan

In the DB plan, the retirement benefit is based on a formula that includes a pension multiplier, your credited years of service, and your final average salary.

Final Average Salary x Membership Class Multiplier x Years of Service = Annual Maximum Single Life Annuity

PSERS Defined Contribution (DC) Plan

In the DC Plan, the retirement benefit is based on the amount of contributions made to the plan and the investment performance of those contributions. Your DC contributions and earnings, if any, are available for you to withdraw when you retire or leave employment. Class DC has only a DC component.

Participant Contribution + Employer Contribution + Voluntary Contributions (after-tax/ rollover) +/- Investment Performance of Your Account = Total Account Value

Class T-C, Class T-D, Class T-E, and Class T-F have only a DB component. Class T-G and Class T-H have both DB and DC components. Class DC has only a DC component.

With PSERS, you're on your way!

The Public School Employees' Retirement System (PSERS) and your school employer have partnered to assist you with planning and saving for your retirement.

When you become a PSERS member, you join one of the nation's largest public pension funds. That means you're now in good company with more than 500,000 fellow PSERS members.

PSERS has been proudly serving Pennsylvania public school employees for the past 100 years. In FY 2022 alone, PSERS disbursed more than $6.6 billion to retirees. When it's your turn to retire, you can count on PSERS to be there for you and your retirement journey.

Access your retirement account online, anytime.

Qualifying for PSERS Membership

All full-time employees must become members of PSERS and must make retirement contributions starting their first day of employment. "Full-time," for retirement purposes with PSERS, is defined as employees who work 5 or more hours a day/5 days a week or its equivalent (25 or more hours a week), even if your employer considers you to be part-time.

Part-time salaried employees qualify for PSERS membership as of their first day of employment and must have retirement contributions withheld.

Part-time hourly and part-time per diem employees must meet minimum service requirements to qualify for PSERS membership (500 hours or 80 days). Once you meet membership requirements, subsequent service for any school employer is qualified service unless there is a break in membership. Refer to PSERS Active Member Handbook for more information.

Part-time employees may waive membership in PSERS. To qualify for the waiver, a part-time employee must have an Individual Retirement Account and request a waiver within 90 days of notification from PSERS that they qualify for PSERS membership. When you waive membership in PSERS, you forfeit all future rights to benefits for the waived time period.

Withheld Contributions

Your employer will withhold contributions beginning with your first day of qualifying PSERS service. If you are a full-time or part-time salaried employee, this will be your first day of employment.

If you are a part-time hourly or per diem employee, your employer can choose to withhold contributions for the PSERS DB plan. Any contributions withheld will be returned to you if you do not qualify for membership. Contributions cannot be withheld for the DC Plan until you qualify for membership. Once you meet PSERS membership eligibility requirements, your employer must withhold both DB and DC contributions.

The amount withheld is determined by your membership class. If you previously were a PSERS member, you will remain in your previous membership class and your employer will withhold contributions at the rate for that class.

Please visit PSERS.pa.gov for the current member contribution rates.

Membership Class of Service

For school employees who become new members of PSERS on or after July 1, 2019, there are three membership classes with different retirement contribution rates and benefits with PSERS: Class T-G, Class T-H, and Class DC. New members are automatically enrolled as Class T-G, but have a one-time opportunity to elect Class T-H or Class DC membership.

Look for class election material from PSERS when your election period is open. Your election material will arrive through your PSERS Member Self-Service (MSS) account if you signed up or in the mail if you did not sign up for MSS. Additional information is also on the PSERS website. To assist you in deciding which membership class is right for you, take advantage of PSERS Membership Class Election Calculator online.

Retired Members Returning to Service

The Retirement Code restricts PSERS retirees from working for a public school in any capacity, full-time or part-time, qualifying or non-qualifying service, while receiving a PSERS retirement benefit except under limited circumstances. If you are a PSERS retiree and return to Pennsylvania public school service as a school employee, your monthly retirement benefit will be stopped unless a return to service exception is approved by the employer and PSERS. Please visit the PSERS website or contact PSERS for more information.

Your Responsibilities

Please refer to PSERS website for PSERS Active Member Handbook and other detailed information.

- ☑ Read PSERS Communications: Once qualified, new members will receive some important items such as the Welcome Packet and Class Election Packet (if applicable). If you have a PSERS Member Self-Service (MSS) account, you are automatically enrolled in Paperless Delivery which means that PSERS will deliver information to you electronically instead of through physical mail. You should check your account periodically to ensure you do not miss important information.

- ☑ Nominate and Maintain Beneficiaries: A beneficiary is the person(s) or entity(ies) you wish to receive your retirement benefits upon your death. You may nominate and change your beneficiary nomination electronically at any time through the MSS Portal. Alternatively, you may submit a Nomination of Beneficiaries (PSRS-187) form to PSERS. Please note that your most recently submitted Nomination of Beneficiaries will supersede previous nominations.

- ☑ Review information on PSERS website and take advantage of available resources such as free Foundations for Your Future (FFYF) programs conducted by PSERS retirement representatives.

- ☑ Keep your email and mailing address current through the MSS Portal.

PSERS recommends that you review all documents that will be forthcoming from PSERS. Information in this document is general in nature, does not cover all factual circumstances and is not a complete statement of the law or administrative rules. The statements in this document are not binding. In any conflict between the statements in this document and applicable law or administrative rules, the law and administrative rules will prevail.

MEANINGFUL NOTICE / PLAN SUMMARY INFORMATION 2023

403(b) PLAN

The 403(b) Plan is a valuable retirement savings option. This notice provides a brief explanation of the provisions, policies and rules that govern the 403(b) Plan offered.

Plan administration services for the 403(b) plan are provided by U.S. OMNI & TSACG Compliance Services. Visit the U.S. OMNI & TSACG Compliance Services' website (https://www.tsacg.com) for information about enrollment in the plan, investment product providers available, distributions, enrollment, exchanges or transfers, 403(b) loans, and rollovers.

ELIGIBILITY

Most employees, with the exception of private contractors, appointed/elected trustees and/or school board members are eligible to participate in the 403(b) plan immediately upon employment. Please verify if your employer allows student workers to participate in the 403(b) plan. Eligible employees may make voluntary elective deferrals to the 403(b) plan. Participants are fully vested in their contributions and earnings at all times.

EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS

Traditional 403(b)

Upon enrollment, participants designate a portion of their salary that they wish to contribute to their traditional 403(b) account up to their maximum annual contribution amount on a pre-tax basis, thus reducing the participant's taxable income. Salary deferral contributions to the participant's 403(b) account are made from income paid through the employer's payroll system. Taxes on contributions and any earnings are deferred until the participant withdraws their funds.

Roth 403(b)

Contributions made to a Roth 403(b) account are after-tax deductions from your paycheck. Income taxes are not reduced by contributions you make to your account. All qualified distributions from Roth 403(b) accounts are tax-free. Any earnings on your deposits are not taxed as long as they remain in your account for five years from the date that your first Roth contribution was made. Distributions may be taken if you are 59½ (subject to plan document provisions) or at separation from service.

The Internal Revenue Service regulations limit the amount participants may contribute annually to tax-advantaged retirement plans and imposes substantial penalties for violating contribution limits. U.S. OMNI & TSACG Compliance Services monitors 403(b) plan contributions and notifies the employer in the event of an excess contribution.

THE BASIC CONTRIBUTION LIMIT FOR 2023 IS $22,500.
Additional provisions allowed:

AGE-BASED ADDITIONAL AMOUNT

Participants who are age 50 or older any time during the year qualify to make an additional contribution of up to $7,500.

THE SERVICE-BASED CATCH UP AMOUNT

The special catch-up provision allows participants to make additional contributions of up to $3,000 if, as of the preceding calendar year, the participant has completed 15 or more full years of employment with the current employer, not averaged over $5,000 per year in annual contributions, and has not utilized catch-up contributions in excess of the aggregate of $15,000. For a detailed explanation of this provision, please visit https://www.tsacg.com.

ENROLLMENT

Employees who wish to enroll in the 403(b) plan must first select the provider and investment product best suited for their 403(b) account. Upon establishment of the account with the selected provider, a "Salary Reduction Agreement" (SRA) form and any disclosure forms must be completed and submitted to the employer. This form authorizes the employer to withhold 403(b) contributions from the employee's pay and send those funds to the Investment Provider on their behalf. A SRA must be completed to start, stop or modify contributions to a 403(b) account. Unless otherwise notified by your employer, you may enroll and/or make changes to your current contributions anytime throughout the year.

Please note: The total annual amount of a participant's contributions must not exceed the Maximum Allowable Contribution (MAC) calculation. For convenience, a MAC calculator is available at https://www.tsacg.com.

INVESTMENT PROVIDER INFORMATION

A current list of authorized 403(b) Investment Providers and current employer forms are available on the employer's specific Web page at https://www.tsacg.com.

PLAN DISTRIBUTION TRANSACTIONS

Distribution transactions may include any of the following depending on the employer's Plan Document: loans, transfers, rollovers, exchanges, hardships, unforeseen financial emergency withdrawals or distributions. Participants may request these distributions by completing the necessary forms obtained from the provider and plan administrator as required. All completed forms should be submitted to the plan administrator for processing.

PLAN-TO-PLAN TRANSFERS

A plan-to-plan transfer is defined as the movement of a 403(b) account from a previous plan sponsor's plan and retaining the same account with the authorized investment provider under the new plan sponsor's plan.

ROLLOVERS

Participants may move funds from one qualified plan account, i.e. 403(b) account, 401(k) account or an IRA, to another qualified plan account at age 59½ or when separated from service. Rollovers do not create a taxable event.

DISTRIBUTIONS

Retirement plan distributions are restricted by IRS regulations. A participant may not take a distribution of 403(b) plan accumulations without penalty unless they have attained age 59½ or separated from service in the year in which they turn 55 or older. In most cases, any withdrawals made from a 403(b) account are taxable in full as ordinary income.

EXCHANGES

Participants may exchange account accumulations from one 403(b) investment provider to another 403(b) investment provider that is authorized under the plan; however, there may be limitations affecting exchanges, and participants should be aware of any charges or penalties that may exist in individual investment contracts prior to exchange.

403(b) PLAN LOANS

Participants may be eligible to borrow their 403(b) plan accumulations depending on the provisions of their 403(b) account contract and provisions of the employer plan. If loans are available, they are generally granted for a term of five years or less (general-purpose loans). Loans taken to purchase a principal residence can extend the term beyond five years depending on the provisions of their 403(b) account contract and provisions of the employer. Details and terms of the loan are established by the provider. Participants must repay their loans through monthly payments as directed by the provider. Prior to taking a loan, participants should consult a tax advisor.

HARDSHIP WITHDRAWALS

Participants may be able to take a hardship withdrawal in the event of an immediate and heavy financial need. To be eligible for a hardship withdrawal according to IRS Safe Harbor regulations, you must verify and provide evidence that the distribution is being taken for specific reasons. These eligibility requirements to receive a Hardship withdrawal are provided on the Hardship Withdrawal Disclosure form at https://www.tsacg.com.

EMPLOYEE INFORMATION STATEMENT

Participants in defined contribution plans are responsible for determining which, if any, investment vehicles best serve their retirement objectives. The 403(b) plan assets are invested solely in accordance with the participant's instructions. The participant should periodically review whether his/her objectives are being met, and if the objectives have changed, the participant should make the appropriate changes. Careful planning with a tax advisor or financial planner may help to ensure that the supplemental retirement savings plan meets the participant's objectives.

403(b) Plan Employee Universal Availability Notice

Frazer School District provides eligible employees the opportunity to voluntarily save for your retirement through a 403(b) plan. The Plan allows you to make pre-tax, or if available in the plan document post-tax Roth contributions, to a 403(b) savings account to help you save for retirement. All employee contributions are made through salary reduction and employees are always 100% vested in employee contributions. Plan contributions as well as any investment earnings are tax-deferred and therefore are not taxable until distributed. Because the plan is to help you save for retirement, distributions from the plan are only permissible under certain circumstances such as retirement or termination of employment.

Eligibility

All employees who receive compensation reportable on an IRS Form W-2 are eligible to participate in the plan, with the exception of those specifically excluded below. If no exclusions are indicated, then all employees are eligible to participate.

- Employees who participate in an eligible governmental plan under Code section 457(b)
- Employees who are non-resident aliens;
- Employees who are students performing certain services
- Employees who normally work fewer than 20 hours per week

Enrollment

Whether you desire to enroll in the plan, or you are already enrolled but wish to make a change to the amount you currently defer, you may accomplish this by establishing an account with one of our approved providers and completing a Salary Reduction Agreement for the plan. You may obtain a list of participating providers from Payroll at the District Office.

Contribution Limitations

- You may contribute up to $22,500 for 2023 based on contribution limits set by federal tax law. If you attain age 50 during the calendar year of the deferral or are over age 50 you may make an additional $7,500 contribution in 2023. These amounts are subject to change annually.

If you are age 50 or over with 15 or more years of service, additional catch-up contributions may be available.

Your participation in this plan is voluntary. Participation in and contributions to the plan may change or cease at any time, subject to the rules of the plan.

I, _____ the undersigned employee hereby attest that I have been made aware of my employers 403(b) Plan and the eligibility requirements thereof.

Confidentiality Agreement

It is the policy of Frazier School District to provide our employees or students with a level of privacy and confidentiality with any information concerning any of our employees or students.

In the course of your work, you may have access to confidential information (oral, written or computer generated not otherwise available to the public at large) about employees or students, their families and/or personal business. School business information includes computer programs, software and supporting documentation, technology improvement plans, strategy plans, financial information and employee information (including but not limited to co-workers and their families).

THEREFORE, I AGREE that:

My right to enter or make use of confidential information is restricted to my need to know the data or information to perform my job responsibilities. I will keep my computer access password(s) confidential. If another method of accessing a computer system is used, I will restrict its use to myself. I will not discuss any confidential information in any public areas, hallways, gathering spaces, etc.

I will hold all confidential information of which I have knowledge in the truest confidence, as required by law. I agree to utilize confidential information obtained by me for the benefit of the employee or student or in performance of my job responsibilities.

Unauthorized disclosure, copying and/or misuse of confidential information is a serious breach of duty and will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment or contract with Frazier School District. Further, this agreement mandates compliance extending beyond employment, contract, or association with Frazier School District as required by law.

I HAVE READ THIS CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT AND AGREE TO ITS TERMS.
