Summary: The committee concluded that AlphaBest had a very reasonable cost for the program and provided the largest sibling discount of 25%.They provide a pool of employees that they train themselves and they evaluate their staff as well. They appear to provide very robust programs and the committee felt that their plans and approach to including special needs and ELL student was the best. They provided a well thought out system of behavior management. The committee felt their plan for communicating with the students,staff, principal and parents was the most comprehensive. The committee contacted several school districts who currently have a contract with AlphaBest and each school district stated that the students and parents love the program. The district administrative staff and principals all say that they are very responsive and are willing to work with the school to modify, add, and enhance programs offered.
