KINGSTREE BOYS BASKETBALL TEAM PARTICIPATED AND COMPETED IN SUMMER ACTIVITIES

The Kingstree High School Boys Basketball team dedicated their summer to growth, discipline, and preparation by participating in workouts sanctioned by the South Carolina High School League (SCHSL). These sessions, held throughout the summer months, provided athletes with opportunities to strengthen their skills, build team chemistry, and prepare for the upcoming season.

Under the guidance of the coaching staff, players engaged in a variety of drills focusing on shooting, ball handling, defensive strategies, and conditioning. Beyond physical training, the workouts emphasized sportsmanship, teamwork, and leadership—qualities essential for both athletic and personal success.

"Our athletes worked hard this summer, showing commitment and resilience. I cannot forget about our parents. They are a driving force that helps this program grow," said Shawnte Evans, Head Coach of the Kingstree High School Boys Basketball team. "Participating in SCHSL-sanctioned workouts ensures we prepare within the league's guidelines while giving our players the structure and competition they need to excel."

From June 20th to 22nd, the boys participated in the South Carolina Live Team Camp, held at the Riverview Park Activities Center and North Augusta High School in North Augusta, SC. High school teams across the state of all classes come to compete. "This is an event we need to be able to consistently attend to help increase our skills and awareness of the game. Building a winning culture takes time and this was another summer where the attendance and effort showed that we are headed in the right direction," said Coach Evans.

Kingstree High School looks forward to an exciting basketball season, confident that the dedication shown over the summer will translate into strong performances on the court.
