

George Dixon Description

Exemplary Teacher

How long have you been in education?

“20 years”

What is your current teaching position?

“7th Grade English Language Arts and Reading Teacher, IMS”

Why are you an Educator?

“I am an educator because life is one continual lesson of learning.”

Why is Ingram ISD a great place to work?

“Being allowed to create classroom activities to help students become successful citizens is the hope of any educator, Ingram ISD is the best place in the Hill Country to create this hope for our future.”

A Quote About George:

“Mr. Dixon's ability to build relationships with students is instrumental in student success. His love for his students shines through each day as he delivers engaging lessons that promote creativity, problem-solving, and collaboration.” Kayla Casey, IMS Principal