

NORTH MOBILE COUNTY K-8

SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT 2024-2025

NORTH MOBILE COUNTY K-8 SCHOOL, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during school year 2024-25.

School Responsibilities

North Mobile County K-8 School will:

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:

Students will receive rigorous and enriching instruction on grade level standards by highly qualified teacher.

2. Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually in elementary schools) during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held:

Parent teacher-conferences will be held at least annually for all students and as frequently as a parent request a conference.

3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows:

Parents will receive progress report sent home every three weeks and report cards sent home at the end of each quarter.

4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:

Parents can schedule conferences with a teacher during their planning period by contacting the school or the teacher.

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

Parents may volunteer in the classroom for special events that occur and may observe classroom activities if an appointment is scheduled in advance with the teacher.

6. Ensure regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand.

Newsletters, as well as other forms of communication, are sent home monthly with all students. These provided information about upcoming events throughout the school. Parents can also email or call the school and/or teachers if needed.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitoring attendance.
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Volunteering in my child's classroom.
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.
- Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district.
- Serving, to the extent possible, on advisory groups, such as Title I advisory committees and parent and family engagement committees.

Student Responsibilities

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Do my homework every day and ask for help when I need to.
- Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.
- Give to my parents or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day.
