Houston County Teacher Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony To Be Held on November 3

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Houston County School District will hold its tenth Houston County Teacher Hall of Fame Ceremony on November 3 at 5:00 p.m. This special event will take place in the Board Room of the Houston County School District's Central Office. A reception will follow the program.

The teachers who will be inducted are Jane Adams, Jane Belflower, Mary Gentry, Debbie Meck, and Patricia Ogletree.

The Houston County Teacher Hall of Fame honors extraordinary classroom teachers who made a significant difference in the lives of their students. Nominees must have taught in the Houston County School District for a minimum of 20 years. Teachers inducted into the Houston County Teacher Hall of Fame sought to encourage, inspire, and motivate their students. They exhibited leadership, were enthusiastic about teaching and learning, worked well with their colleagues, and demonstrated competency in their subject matter.

The ceremony will feature a choral ensemble from Warner Robins High School who will perform the national anthem. Dave Crockett, Houston County Board of Education member, will be the guest speaker. The ceremony will be live streamed on the District's YouTube page.

This event is made possible with the support of Premier Event Sponsors: Flint Energies, H.E.A. Federal Credit Union, Houston Healthcare, Parrish Construction Group, The Roderick Group, Totem Benefit Solutions, and Yancey Bus Sales & Service. Additional support for the Teacher Hall of Fame was provided by Cherokee Brick Company, Classic Award & Trophy, and Recollections by Lynn.
