CATECHESIS Q & A: DEEPENING OUR KNOWLEDGE

Fr. Philip's Homily from July 5, 2015 - Is Going to Mass an Important Part of Your Vacation Plans?

This is summer time and vacations abound. It's a time to rest, relax, and get away from the everyday pressures of life. Vacations can help us unwind and empty out. Some folks are content to empty themselves into a good book, others go camping, fishing, golf, sight-seeing, and some go just to visit family. We all take time to refuel. Have you ever been on a vacation that required another vacation to rest from the vacation you just finished. And lets not forget how expensive vacations can be...

Vacation is defined as "freedom from obligations, leisure, release", from Old French vacacion "vacancy, vacant position" and directly from Latin vacationem (nominative vacatio) "leisure, freedom, exemption, a being free from duty, immunity earned by service," noun of state from past participle stem of vacare "be empty, free, or at leisure." Nobody is home! Vacate- "state of being unoccupied," Vacation is sometimes called a holiday- HOLY/ DAY - Holy is Hebrew is Kiddushin- Literally set apart. And literally used is the setting apart a bride for the bridegroom (Betrothal). Keep Holy the Sabbath day. Set apart the day Israel was betrothed to God.

When we go on vacation do we pack the Commandments or leave them on the dresser? Do we plan for Mass in our itineraries? Or do we sometimes feel like we need a "Vacation from God" and finding a Church is a hassle? Here's a different question: Did Jesus ever go on a vacation? Mary and Joseph annually took the Child to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover in the Great Temple. This was a costly journey for this working class family Nazareth to Jerusalem was about a five-day-walk and over ninety miles of rough country. The sun would beat down on the caravan by day and the nights would be unpredictable. They would visit relatives, see new sites, shop in a busy market place with countless vendors, they would visit the Temple of course, and enjoy the culture, the music, food, and whatever else this Holy and Massive city would offer.

But vacations are supposed to be FUN! Some may argue that, while they do not go to Mass all the time, they do worship God at home in their own personal way. Great! Praying at home is great! But that does not satisfy the Commandment. Ask yourself the question, "If such worship was not kosher for Christ, how can it be acceptable for any of us today?" Padre Pio once said: "If we understood the Eucharist, we would risk our life to get to Mass".

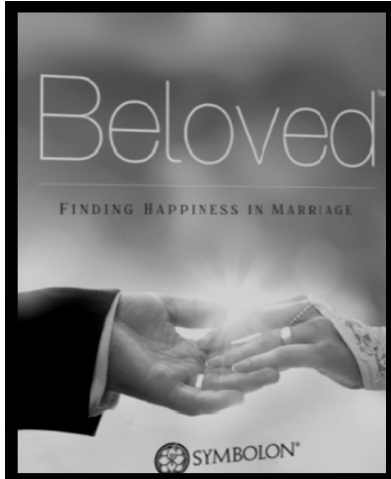

Why bother going to Mass? We're on vacation! Some intellectuals say, "If the homilies were better, I would go to Mass." The teens tell me all the time, "Mass is boring." Why are teens so quick to say Mass is boring? What are their expectations? Constant entertainment? My response to that is if you want a good laugh listen to Obama sing Amazing Grace. We come to Mass to worship God because it is our duty and salvation. Can you imagine the number of dull sermons Jesus of Nazareth must have heard over thirty-three years? Or the conversations he had with his parents after a day at the synagogue ...Yet, He faithfully kept HOLY the Sabbath day. "I don't go to church because there are so many hypocrites there." Do you really think there were no such hypocrites around during the days of His public worship? Jesus openly challenged hypocrites to change. The church is not a museum of saints but rather a hospital for the sick...and since I have become a priest I feel like I am constantly in the emergency room! And I love it! I love being a priest!

Boring homilies and hypocrites notwithstanding, the Nazarene was obliged to go to keep Holy the Sabbath day. Since Christ did all this, tithe, go to synagogue, honor and respect His parents, and of course kept all the Father's commandments so of course should you and I. Furthermore, the Scriptures tell us that Jesus invested much of His time in private prayer as well. It was a given that every Jewish family would have a schedule of daily private prayer. This would be particularly true at meals. This custom Jesus continued to the end as the Last Supper indicates.

Yet, He put aside quality time for private prayer not the few minutes left at the end of the day or the desperate prayer of "faith" when we lose our keys so we are not late for the movies. Luke's gospel tells us, "Crowds pressed on Him. But He retired to a mountain and prayed." In Mark: "In the morning, He got up, left the house, and went off to a lonely place, and prayed there." "To pray is to expose the shore of the mind to the incoming tide of God." (Ralph Stockman).

Cor ad Cor Loquitur - Heart speaks to Heart. One must thereby conclude that Jesus considered prayer not a necessity. The Scriptures warn us that the servant is not greater than the master and the pupil not greater than the teacher. Jesus gives us yet another example of right living and a right relationship with God. Why then do we assign prayer to the fringes of our busy lives? And why are our lives so busy? What are we doing that is so important? And is what we are doing more important than keeping God's commandments? Vacations are good and sometimes necessary, but no matter how hard we try we can never ever vacation from God.

CATHOLICISM 101- Three More Classes! Deepening Your Knowledge: Understanding the Basics of Marriage

Everyone—singles, couples, those discerning marriage—who would like to know more about what the Church teaches about marriage and the family is invited to attend these sessions. We will present the Symbolon series, “BELOVED: FINDING HAPPINESS IN MARRIAGE,” which explores the meaning of marriage and how to live it out together. In these sessions, you will discover the deepest spiritual, emotional, and practical realities of marriage through Scripture, Tradition, and Church teaching. BABYSITTING will be available... please RSVP to the numbers below if you will need child care.

Classes meet on Tuesday evenings in the Parish Meeting Room from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Next dates are as follows: July 21 and August 4 and 18. Classes may be extended into September!

For more info, contact the class leaders, Rhonda Storey (225) or Ruben Beltran (235).

Beautiful Bed For Sale! FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE CLOISTERED CARMELITE NUNS

A parishioner has donated a beautiful queen-size “sleigh” bed to the Auxiliary to sell for the benefit of the nuns. It was a seldom-used guestroom bed purchased from Ethan Allan for about $3000.00 (dark golden brown walnut color). It is disassembled and is in the basement of the parish offices (mattress not included). The buyer is responsible for moving it. If interested and want to see it in order to make a serious offer, please contact the parish offices at (626) 282-2744.
