Description	Join us for a high-impact session with Stephanie Dyer, a school psychologist, Board Certified Behavior Analyst, and statewide leader in autism education. This training will focus on practical, realistic strategies that strengthen inclusive practices while addressing significant challenging behaviors. Stephanie will share evidence-informed approaches that support authentic inclusion across educational settings. These practices are effective for all, but essential for some making them valuable tools for every educator. This session will highlight: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Addressing significant challenging behaviors in ways that uphold student dignity, enhance safety, and build long-term skill development. • Designing inclusive environments that increase engagement, independence, communication, and social connection. • Implementing intentional, consistent, and sustainable practices that foster true belonging and benefit the entire school community.
