    - i. PTSG is getting ready for our annual Holiday Giving Tree. Please encourage teachers, admin, and staff to complete the form I emailed out last week. To be included in the Friday email, or on the tree as it goes up, please fill out the form by this upcoming Wednesday (tomorrow) evening. Thank you to Jessi Taylor for helping me with it this year! Skate Country Private Halloween Party was a HUGE success! Thank you to Teresa Moe for organizing that super fun event! We have NEW spirit wear for sale in our online store! Thank you to Stephanie Burt for designing and ordering those!
  - b. NJHS Report
    - i. NJHS canned food drive is ongoing until 12/1 as homerooms are bringing in various items which will be ultimately donated to the Community Food Bank. Today (11/14) we participated in Ruby Bridges' Walk to School Day. Students were encouraged to wear purple and join each other at 8 am for a walk in. In addition to that there was a scavenger hunt during WIN time. We were thankful for everyone who participated.
  - c. STUCO Report
    - ii. Student Council is having their first dance of the year on Friday 11/17. We are really excited to celebrate with a glow in the dark theme. PTSG will graciously be asking parents to help provide pizzas. It will be from 3:30-5 and is $3 to get in. STUCO and NJHS are jointly running Snack Shack at Bobcat home games.
