

Shirley Hills Elementary School
School Council Meeting
Date: February 12, 2024
5:30-6:30 p.m.

1. Commencement of Proceedings – Principal Brooks initiated the meeting at 5:35 p.m.
2. Greetings – Principal Brooks extended a warm welcome to our two teacher representatives, Kimberly Stephens (5th Grade) and Amaris Nieves (Kindergarten).
3. School Updates:
 - Academic Progress Report – Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Dunlap presented the findings from the MAP and iReady Assessments in Reading and Math. They outlined the various support systems available to enhance student learning, including iXL, iReady, Reflex Math, and Academic Opportunity Time (Intervention and Extension).
 - Behavioral Developments – Mrs. Brooks highlighted the school's distinction as a PBIS Distinguished School and its significance. Additionally, she reviewed the current behavioral referral data for Shirley Hills Elementary School.
 - School Calendar Events – Mrs. Brooks informed attendees about upcoming parent activities, field trips, and emphasized the importance of completing two surveys: the Title 1 survey and the Georgia DOE Parent Survey. She also encouraged those interested in joining the School Council to attend the next meeting for detailed information on available positions, with elections scheduled for the final meeting of the year.
4. Questions – Attendees raised questions regarding a 5th-grade field trip, and details were shared about End-of-Year Awards Ceremony Dates.
5. Conclusion: The meeting concluded at 6:30 p.m.

Upcoming Meetings:
