Homecoming Parade Information

1. Floats may be dropped off at the football field parking lot beginning at 10:30 a.m. Entries MUST be lined up by 12:00 p.m. (NO EXCEPTIONS)! ONLY parade entries will be allowed in the parking lot. NO vehicles will be allowed behind the high school before or after the parade.
2. Parade Route: Leave football field parking lot turn left on Pierce Street- turn left on Main Street- turn left on Adams Street (next to old bank)- turn left on Gilmer Street-turn right on Ward Street and reenter football field parking lot.
3. At least one adult (21 years of age) is required to ride on each float entry.
4. An adult (21 years of age) is required to drive on ALL entries.
5. Soft items (t-shirts, hats, plastic footballs, etc.) can be thrown from floats. No candy or other hard items allowed.
6. Each parade entry participant MUST have a signed permission slip. The parade entry sponsor is responsible for collecting and ensuring each participant has a signed form.
7. Students riding a school float will walk to the football field parking lot with their teacher at 1:55. Students riding a non-school float may checkout at 1:00 with their group sponsor. Once students checkout, they will not return to the classroom. Please see the Homecoming parent information letter for additional information.
8. The parade will begin promptly at 2:15 p.m.; all participants must be situated and prepared for the parade at this time.
9. No animals, three or four-wheelers, bikes, or go-carts are allowed in the parade. Tractors pulling floats are allowed.
10. Parade entry forms MUST be submitted to the office no later than 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 25th.
11. School will be dismissed when the parade ends. Parade entry sponsors are responsible for getting students to their correct dismissal location (i.e. bus, signed out to parent, walker, etc.).
12. Parents and guardians are to park in the front of the school, then walk to the football field parking lot if they are picking up their student from a parade entry.
13. Above all else, safety is our number one priority. Please take all preventative measures and remind students of ways to ensure their safety before, during, and after the parade.
14. Grit + Grind will be on campus if you'd like to purchase a refreshment. If students purchase a drink, they need to finish it before getting on their float.
