Work Permit Requirements

- Students with work permits are required to maintain appropriate attendance and school performance to maintain their work permits.
- Students with excessive truancies within a school year will have their work permit revoked. Students, parents, and employers will be notified of the work permit revocation.
- Students with a GPA below 2.0 or more than two NCs (no credit) in a term, will have their work permit revoked. Employers, students, and parents will be notified of the work permit revocation.
- If the work permit is revoked, students may apply to have their work permit reinstated if attendance and/or academic performance has improved enough to maintain a “C” average and/or has considerable improvement of unexcused absences for one grading period.
