

CES Intermediate Student Spotlight
December, 2024

Caroline Finke

Caroline is a super sweet girl who truly appreciates her teacher, her school and her education. She loves to be at school, loves to read, especially about dragons, and is always grateful for anything special the class gets to do. Just being around her makes me smile.