

THE YAZOOKEEPER SCHOLARSHIP

“EVERYONE HAS A STORY; WHAT’S YOURS?”

Description: Macklyn Austin in collaboration with Talk That Talk Media Publishing Co. are teaming up to give a High School Senior the opportunity to become a published author and win a

$1,000 Scholarship

Criteria: Each contestant must read the memoir, “The YazooKeeper” and reflect on one’s own life. After completion of the memoir and reflection, you are to write a five (or more) paragraph essay on any event or series of events that has happened in your life. In your opening (first) paragraph, express your biggest takeaway from “The YazooKeeper” that has directly inspired/ motivated you to speak up and tell your story. Remember, keep an open mind and be as free and creative as possible.

Deadline: May 14, 2023

Submission:
Font size- 12 | Font- Times New Roman
Send PDF. file or Word document to TheYazooKeeper@gmail.com

NUMBER OF WINNERS: 1

Benefits of becoming a Published Author:

Passive Income (Income that you acquire without laboring for. “Making money while you sleep.”)

Potential interviews on reputable platforms

Helping someone else overcome obstacles that they are facing.

Entering a database where anyone in the world has access to your story- this opens up an opportunity for you to continue to tell your story through film after other creatives have sought after you.

All rights to your story are reserved to you. (You will own your story with the management of the publisher.)

There are copies of The YazooKeeper located at Ricks Memorial Library, downtown Yazoo City.

You may also purchase a hard copy or digital version online at Amazon.com (Type, The YazooKeeper in the search box.)