The entertainment world has discovered the Bible

The BBC is the latest to announce a show based on the scriptures. The British network says it's working on a documentary series focusing on the life of Christ. This comes amidst the popular success of "The Chosen", which has captivated audiences for years. Amazon Prime's "House of David" has been renewed and last year Netflix broke out "Ruth and Boaz" along with several other Biblical projects. Fox produced "The Faithful: Women of the Bible."

United Methodist Church Rejects Asbury Seminary, Which Has Historical Ties to Nearby Revival

Christian seminary with close ties to a launching point for an outpouring of the Spirit of God across American campuses has been rejected by the United Methodist Church (UMC).

Asbury is a multi-denominational, evangelical seminary that's been rooted in the Wesleyan tradition, also known as Methodism, since 1946. But now the UMC's accrediting body, the University Senate of The United Methodist Church, has decided to no longer accept seminary graduates from Asbury because it disagreed with the denomination's decision to endorse homosexuality and same-sex marriage.

Once again, the Texas Rangers have opted not to celebrate the LGBT lifestyle as Major League Baseball's other 29 teams did in June. Instead, the Rangers hosted a "Faith and Family Night" at Globe Life Field in Arlington during which some players gave their testimonies. Republican Governor Greg Abbot cheered the team on X saying “In Texas, we don’t punish people for living out their faith. We protect that right.”

Dr. Phil Tells CBN News: 'Religious Liberty in America Is Under Siege'

As the United States prepares to celebrate its 250th anniversary on July 4, President Trump is spotlighting religious liberty as one of the country's foundational principles. Trump met at the White House with members of the Religious Liberty Commission, a panel he established a year ago to examine threats to faith and conscience protections in America. The commission presented its findings after holding seven hearings over the past year and listening to testimony from more than 100 witnesses.

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

- My family has gone through many problems. I am still in high school and many teenagers know that when your family has gone through problems, school is hard to face. My father was not saved and we listened to stations like WABB. I started going to Church in Semmes, AL. pretty soon, I started to listen to Power 88 and I fell in love. That is the only channel on the radio I listen to. Not only do I love to listen to it but so do my family. Thanks
