Dr. Kelly Rush Named Principal of New Langston Road Primary School

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Houston County Board of Education has appointed Dr. Kelly Rush as principal of the new Langston Road Primary School. Dr. Rush currently serves as the principal of Langston Road Elementary School. Langston Road Primary is currently under construction and is scheduled to open for the 2023-2024 school year.

“I’m very honored that our school district has given me the opportunity to open Langston Road Primary School,” said Dr. Rush. “I am thrilled that I will be working with some familiar faces as we continue to serve the Langston Road community. It truly is full of the best students and parents in the county.”

Dr. Rush has worked in the District since 2000, beginning as a special education teacher at Eagle Springs Elementary. She served as an Assistant Principal at both Miller Elementary and Matt Arthur Elementary. She began her career as a kindergarten teacher in Maine, where she also taught first grade, second grade and special education before moving to Georgia.

Dr. Rush earned a Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Columbus State University in Georgia. In addition, she has a Specialist Degree in Educational Leadership from Georgia College and State University and a Master of Special Education from Central Missouri State University. She earned her bachelor’s degree at the University of Maine at Presque Isle.

She and her husband have two sons who both graduated from Houston County High School.
