What do you love about your school?

When you walk into Quail Run Elementary, you automatically know you are somewhere special. The teachers and staff are positive, supportive, and love working with children. I appreciate how our staff works together with the shared mission of being a place where we grow together and love learning. Our slogan is Quail Run has more fun and this is one hundred percent true.

What do you love most about being a principal?

I love how I am given the opportunity to be a part of each child's life to celebrate their successes while also supporting them through troubling times. I also enjoy working with our amazing teachers and staff who go above and beyond to meet their students' needs. We are a family. We take care of one another. One of my favorite things about being a principal is hugging a student and telling them how happy I am that they are at school today. Kids need to know they matter and we love them.

Tell us about the person who inspired you to become a leader.

Dr. Pearson-Kilgore inspired me by her example and continuous support. She always modeled how a principal should be visible and supportive. I remember her telling me how I was going to do great things as a teacher. I truly believe that the great things I accomplished were in part possible, because she helped me believe in myself and my ability to make a difference.
