GOOD NEWS

- We had a very successful Chili Festival. The raffle made around $2200. Keely and Kenna McGehee were the queens for the day and Eric Herring was the king for the day for selling the most raffle tickets.
- We are just completing our chocolate fundraiser.
- The staff, parent, and student survey results are in.
 - Class DoJo and our Face book page received several positive comments.
 - The parent drop off line had a few complaints so Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Clark are helping out there to see if they can help things run smoothly.
 - Comments were made about our double routed buses. We currently have 2 employees, Mr. Jake and Mrs. Holder, that can drive a bus. Mrs. Tucker is in the process of getting her CDL.
 - 55 parents participated in this survey.
 - Classroom teachers do send out newsletters. Ideas for parent communication in the future are Coffee chats or google meet.
 - Our overall rating was a 4.25 on a 5 scale.
- KSA results – 67.9 is our score. Our goal was 70 or higher. We were very close to being a green school.

PLANNING
