KINGSTREE MIDDLE MAGNET SCHOOL OF THE ARTS' "VELVET ROAR" CHORUS FEATURED AT SOUTH CAROLINA SCHOOL BOARDS ASSOCIATION ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Kingstree Middle Magnet School of the Arts proudly celebrates its dynamic chorus, Velvet Roar, for its recent featured performance at the South Carolina School Boards Association (SCSBA) Annual Conference.

Under the direction of Mr. Vaughn Nesmith, Velvet Roar delivered an inspiring and powerful performance before school board members, superintendents, and educational leaders from across the state. Their presentation showcased not only their exceptional vocal talent but also the artistic excellence and commitment to the performing arts cultivated at Kingstree Middle Magnet School of the Arts.

The invitation to perform at the SCSBA Annual Conference is a distinguished honor, highlighting the chorus as an example of student achievement and arts education excellence within South Carolina public schools.

Mr. Nesmith, who leads the program with passion and high expectations, has cultivated a culture of discipline, creativity, and confidence among his students. Through rigorous rehearsals and artistic expression, Velvet Roar continues to represent the school and community with pride.

The performance served as a reminder of the transformative power of arts education and the importance of supporting programs that allow students to discover and develop their talents.

Kingstree Middle Magnet School of the Arts remains committed to fostering academic and artistic excellence, ensuring students are prepared not only for the classroom but for stages far beyond it.

The mission of Williamsburg County School District is to prepare students for college, careers, and citizenship in a global society.
