

WCSD Featured Story

News Stories from Across Williamsburg County School District

Provided by the Office of Public Relations of Williamsburg County School District

INTERVIEW OF HEAD COACH BARRY MCFADDEN OF THE KINGSTREE BLAZERS BOYS BASKETBALL TEAM

Q: What do you think will be your team's strengths? A: The strength of the team will be trying to build continuity each and every game. Our strength will be how well we can build chemistry as a team.

Q: Who do you think your team will be most excited about playing? A: I think the team will be excited about having the opportunity to play basketball period. So playing every team on the schedule will be an exciting time for our team.

Q: Will you be playing in any tournaments this season? A: No, we don't have any tournaments scheduled at this moment.

Q: What do you usually do after losing a game? A: What I usually do after losing a game is evaluate what went wrong and work on improving those issues.

Q: What can fans expect to see from your team this season?

A: Kingstree Blazer fans can expect to see us playing hard and being consistent every game.

Q: At the end of the season do you think you will be playing for a region or state title? A:

That's the goal for every team but you want know until it happens. There are too many things can happen in a season to predict so early

Q: Who are your key returning players?

A: This is a "New Team" with the merging of two schools, so there will be new players trying to bond and build unity.

Q: How many years have you been coaching?

A: I have been coaching for 25 years.

