

Meditation Begins Day for Interfaith Members

The Interfaith Club provided an atmosphere of faith and love for teenagers of different religious backgrounds. You met on Thursday mornings before school in the chorus room for a time of fellowship. You had songs to sing, and a prayer to help you through each new day.

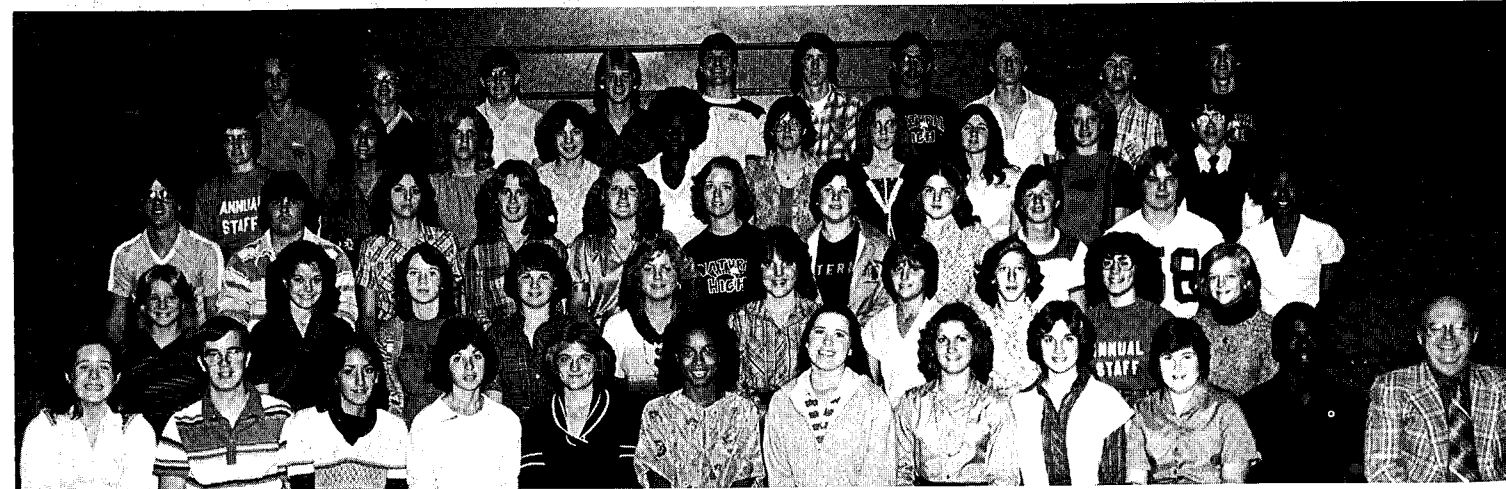

1. God is my co-pilot.
2. Sponsor W. Schultz goes over the club's plans.
3. Morning is a time of serious thought for members during an Interfaith meeting.

4

The Foreign Language Club consisted of many students who had classes in French or Spanish during the year. You travelled to Florida Southern College for Foreign Language Day where you won 33 blue ribbons, 21 red, and 13 white in various language areas, such as declamation, dictation, and other categories. You entered the Dream Girl Pageant which your candidate, Julie Wiltshire, won.

Campus Chatter Free to Students

You, the newspaper staff, filled the halls with the once again familiar editions of the Campus Chatter. You worked under the leadership of Mr. Potter to produce an interesting and informative newspaper. You were the ones who gathered information, wrote articles and laid out the paper in addition to selling ads to the various businesses in order to make the newspaper possible and free of charge to the students at L.W.H.S.

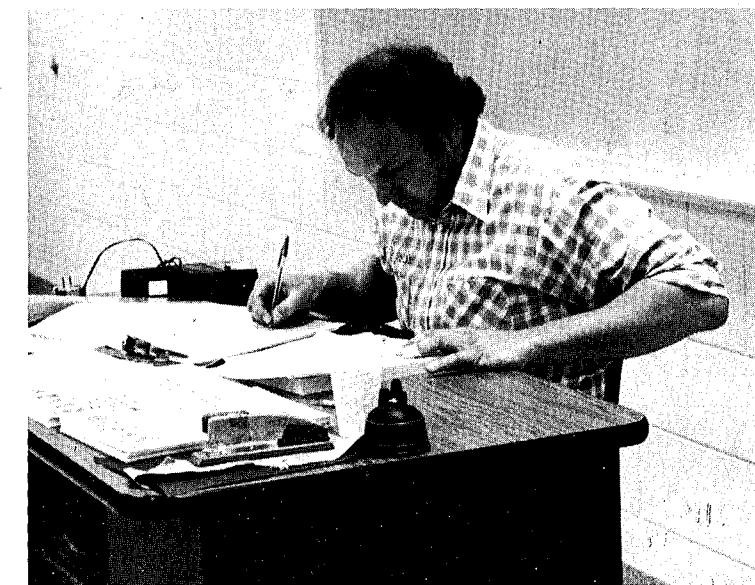

When your work was done, there was time for play. You checked out of school and went down to the lake for your picnic. And don't forget your car wash. You had a lot of fun when at work and play. It was a good year, one you will always remember.

1. L. Anderson listens, deep in a thought.
2. Our advisor, Mr. Potter enjoys the picnic.
3. J. Brannon, N. Blocker and D. Commet prepare a lay-out.

Serviteens — Teens That Serve the Community

The Serviteens Club marked their year by serving the school with great effort. At the Pep Rallies, you cheered the football team and chose a Sweetheart, Scott Clack. You decorated a truck with the slogan "Strike the Tigers" to show off your school spirit. You participated in ushering at the Little Theatre Productions. Plus, you sold programs at the Passion Play. Also, you sold peanut butter and jelly sandwiches during Pioneer Day. You went door-to-door and trick or treated for UNICEF and collected canned foods for needy families for Christmas. You helped to make all this happen for the Serviteens Club.

1. Lorrie Frederick is in one of her more serious moods.
2. A crisp smile sparkles on Mrs. Waller's face showing joy at homecoming.
3. Serviteens show the theme for the homecoming parade.
4. Stacey Miller examines the gourmet meal.
5. Molly Sims conducts the Serviteens meeting.
6. Kelly Ard says, "Hmm! That looks good!"
7. Wanda Calhoun experiences the wonderful delicacies.

CBE-FBLA Visits Disney World

Homecoming week celebrations began the year for the FBLA-CBE Club. You decked out in fabulous orange and black spirit bows to show your Highlander pride. On Friday mornings you went to one of the area's restaurants to enjoy the warm breakfast with other club members. Around the corner came the FBLA Convention with many categories of different business areas for competition that you could choose to enter. On Valentine's Day you placed ornamental appreciations to teachers for the loving effectiveness with which they taught every student. You spent a day of enjoyment at Disney World enjoying the rides, and posing for a few pictures. CBE taught you many things, but the best lesson learned was becoming a part of this group of young adults.

Beacons Light Shines

"You can't be a Beacon if your light won't shine." This quote was what you stood for and you have most certainly succeeded. You are a major service club to the Lake Wales area. You have had many activities. A few of the major ones are adopting a grandparent. Two girls adopted a grandparent at your local convalescent center and had gatherings with them at Christmas and Halloween and the Sadie Hawkins Dance, in which the girls asked the guys to the dance. Other activities you participated in are as follows: Working at the Little Theater during refreshment time; having a dance to raise money for muscular dystrophy; contributing flowers to the office every week; helping at Walesfest and the Art Show, and many others. Congratulations Beacons for a successful year!

1. K. Gibson and H. Bradley talk it over.
2. Beacon members.
3. B. Moore, Beacon Sweetheart.
4. H. Friman and K. Sims participate in Beacon activities.

Key Club Wins Award

You are a community club that is active through the year. Your theme is to "Share Togetherness." During the summer you played shuffle board with the elderly at the nursing home weekly. You were given a silver achievement award at district convention for being second best silver Key Club. You have participated in many activities this year, such as acting as Roman guards in the Passion Play, working for Ben Hill Griffin Golf Tournament parking cars, taking food to needy families during the holidays and giving gifts to the elderly at the nursing home during the holidays. You also sponsored money raising funds like Muscular Dystrophy, March of Dimes, and contributed to the curtain fund here at Lake Wales High School. Congratulations on your silver achievement award received at district convention and on being an outstanding community club.

Leo Sponsors Rock-A-Thon

As a club you grew in size like never before. Your meetings were held on Wednesdays at seven. This year, like every other year, you sponsored a Rock-A-Thon in the market place and what a success it was! Your other money making projects included several bake sales and the Lions candy sale. At the end of the year you held an installment dinner for your new officers.

Media Visits Libraries

You as a club have participated in many school activities. You have sold used paper back books to contribute to the curtain fund for the school. During the spirited season of football, you made and sold the Highlander tams to raise money for your club. At Christmas you made and gave paper clips made from clothes pins to the faculty and staff. You also had a Christmas party for yourself. During Easter you had an Easter egg decorating contest. There were three categories: Most Original, Most Like Easter, and the Prettiest. You increased your education by visiting the Webber College and Warner Southern College libraries on a field trip. You also had an exhibit of faculty hobbies for National Library Week. Also you received art exhibits from the Ringling Museum sponsored by Lake Wales Museum.

SES CLASSES CLASSES

Freshmen Gain Experience

YOU the class of '83 entered L.W.H.S. learning new and different things each day. You learned that part of being a freshman was being able to take the teasing from the rest of the classes. At first you were unsure of yourself and felt a little bit awkward but as time went on you became one of us.

You built your first float with the theme of: "Cage the Tigers" which placed third in the Homecoming parade. You selected Eliza Scurry and Ron Gall to represent your freshman class at the Homecoming activities. You sold T-shirts with the "Class of 83" printed on them because you were proud of your class and wanted everyone to know that you were a part of it.

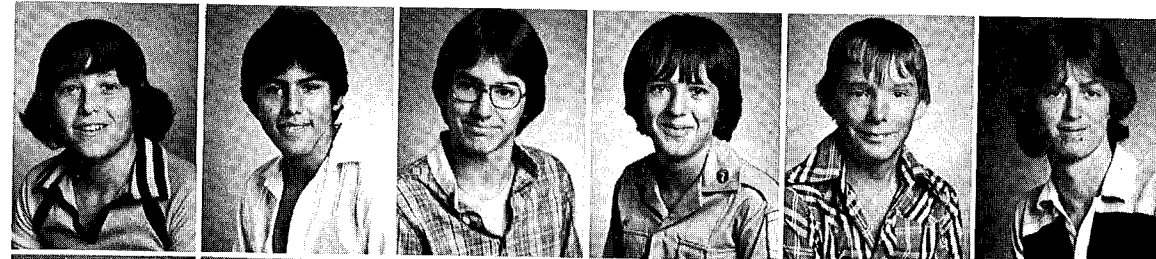

Your money raising projects included: car washes, selling jewelry and the unique Cut-A-Thon where the students at L.W.H.S. paid five dollars and in return received a haircut from the Upstairs Parlor staff.

Your freshman class was definitely a plus to Lake Wales High School.

Sophomore Servers Selected

Miss Wilford's 5th period class shows their spirit before a game.

You, the class of 1982, achieved many goals which you set for yourselves. You received honorable mention in the Homecoming parade for your float whose theme was "Toast the Tigers." You elected Carrie Drasdo and Andy Nelson to represent you in the Homecoming festivities. You had several money-raising projects during the year such as selling candy, Sophomore class car wash, and the second annual Gong Show. Early in the year you designed a Class of '82 T-shirt which sold very well. The J.V. teams had a very exciting season. The football team won three out of eight games played. The basketball team won all but one during the season. The cheerleaders showed much enthusiasm and spirit to help push the class to victory. At the end of the year, twelve Sophomore girls and boys were elected to serve at the Prom. You were very eager and excited about your class all year long.

Sophomore class officers and sponsors: Treasurer A. Biglete; Secretary M. McGill; President J. Borders; Vice President C. Owen; J. Baker and J. Lee.
